Browder Denies Budenz Testimony Concerning Lattimore

Browder Says Testimony Of Budenz False

Former Communist Leader Makes Denial In Lattimer Case

By WILLIAM THEIS
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Former Communist leader Earl Browder categorically denied as "false" today the testimony of Louis Budenz that Owen Lattimore was commended at a Red meeting for promoting the Communist line.

The 58-year-old Browder told Senate loyalty investigators that he had never met or even seen Lattimore during his time in the Communist party.

Browder also said that he had never "discussed him (Lattimore) with any member of the Communist party." Browder added:

"He was definitely known to me as a person of anti-Communist views of a very decided and profound nature."

Denies Budenz' Assertion

He denied Budenz' assertion under oath that the Communist party used the magazine "Pacific Affairs" of the Institute of Pacific Relations to promote the Red policy on China.

Browder said "we never considered such a thing as practicable."

Lattimore, an expert on Far Eastern affairs, has been accused by Sen. McCarthy (R) Wis., of being pro-Communist and the top Soviet espionage agent in the U.S. McCarthy has stated that his charges of communism in the State Department will "stand or fall" on the Lattimore case.

Chief committee counsel Edward P. Morgan recounted Budenz' testimony that at a Communist leadership meeting in October, 1937, Browder and Frederick Vanderbilt Field "commended" Lattimore for his "responsibility in placing a number of Communist writers" in publications of the Institute of Pacific Relations.

Makes Denial

He asked Browder if there was such a meeting.

"There was not," Browder replied.

Browder further denied Budenz' testimony that about this time the Communist policy on China shifted to portray Chinese Communists as agarian reformers.

Browder said he is now "unemployed" and lives in Yonkers, N. Y.

Calling of Browder was assailed as "ridiculous" by Sen. McCarthy (R) Wis., whose charges of communism in the State Department touched off the probe. McCarthy asserted that it will be next to impossible to get any real information from Browder.

British Labor Government Believed Secure Until Fall

By THOMAS C. WATSON
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, April 27.—Britain's Laborite government was considered in political quarters today to be safeguarded at least until next fall by yesterday's two parliamentary victories.

The Labor membership beat down two threats to the regime of Prime Minister Clement Attlee by identical votes of 304 to 299. The combined opposition of Conservatives and Liberals challenged the government on a proposed 10 cents a gallon hike in gasoline and a 33 1-3 per cent tax on trucks and other commercial vehicles.

The Laborite government would have bene forced to resign had the opposition been able to defeat the proposals presented in the budget of Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir Stafford Cripps.

May Be Quieting

The result of the voting is expected to have a quieting effect on British politics for the time being.

Since the Conservatives and Liberals made an all-out effort to drive Attlee from power, the op-

Australia To Act On Measure Banning Reds

Measure Introduced To Outlaw Communist Party In Australia

(BULLETIN)

CANBERRA, Australia, April 27—(INS)—Australia's parliament was placed under strong police guard equivalent to a "state of siege" today after a measure was introduced to outlaw the Communist party.

The bill was presented in accordance with a campaign promise by the commonwealth's prime minister, Robert Gordon Menzies.

The police "state of siege" was put into effect in readiness for any possible Communist demonstrations against the legislators.

Far-Reaching Measure

The far-reaching measure would bar any Communists from holding public office and eventually may lead to outlawing unions in concerns vital to security and defense.

The measure would make anyone continuing membership either as officer or member in an association declared unlawful liable to five years or more in prison.

Menzies told the crowded and excited House that the Community party and no right of appeal.

Enemies of Peace

Emphasizing that he proposed similar treatment should be meted out to "affiliated associations and bodies," the prime minister said:

"Enemies of peace in our country will not be allowed to occupy positions in which they can give greatest effect to their evil designs."

The prime minister admitted that the proposal for banning affiliated organizations was "novel and far-reaching" and said it was "designed to deal with the king's enemies."

Youngstown Police Chief Is Witness

By GLENN M. GREEN
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 27.—An Ohio police chief told a Senate subcommittee today that "corrupt politicians" put Frankie Costello in his present position as a national figure.

Edmund J. Allen of Youngstown, Ohio, testified while the nattily dressed Costello cooled his heels in an anteroom awaiting his turn to face questioning about interstate gambling.

Police Chief Allen declared:

"Professional politicians and racketeers have much in common —they both need money.

"If it were not for corrupt politician and racketeers, Frank Costello would not be in the position he is today as a national figure.

"Huey Long brought Costello into Louisiana and turned the slot machines over to him."

Skeptical On Situation

Allen was skeptical about the "inside information" which the McFarland subcommittee hopes to get. He said:

Youth Held In Woman's Death

POTTSTOWN, Pa., April 27.—(INS)—Robert Swavely, 26-year-old Pottstown truck driver, was held today in connection with the "mystery" death of Mrs. Catherine Newman, 40, on a highway last Sunday.

Police said the case was solved last night with admission by Swavely that his car struck Mrs. Newman after the pair had visited several taprooms together.

Detectives said Swavely called it "an accident" but investigators said they were trying to establish if it was a deliberate attack by automobile.

Mrs. Newman, a resident of Birchrunville and mother of three, died on the Pottstown-West Chester highway after being run down accidentally by two cars as she lay injured in the road.

Strike Cuts Off Service At New York City Apartments

NEW YORK, April 27.—(INS)—A strike of AFL elevator operators and other building employes cut off service today to residents of nearly 2,000 Manhattan apartment houses.

Union officials said that 18,000 workers will be affected. Picket lines were set up as each group of buildings were struck.

Flying squads of the Building Service Employes Union went from building to building calling out operators, superintendents and porters.

The strike began before the morning rush when wage earners and schoolchildren among the 70,000 to 100,000 families in the dwellings normally leave.

In the labor dispute, the union is demanding a $2.75 weekly increase, which was won some months ago by the 12,000 workers in loft and office buildings represented by Local 32-B. The workers also seek a 40 instead of a 48-hour week.

Maragon To Seek New Trial

Maragon Held In Jail Following Perjury Verdict

WASHINGTON, April 27—(INS)—Attorneys for John Maragon rushed plans today to appeal for a new trial in his conviction for having lied to senate "five percenter" investigators.

Irvin Goldstein, lawyer for the man who once had entree to the White House, said the new trial motion will be filed today if possible "and by Friday at the latest".

Not Released On Bail

Goldstein's haste is prompted by the refusal of Federal Judge Nennings Bailey to permit release of his client on bail pending pronouncement of sentence.

A district court jury yesterday returned a verdict of guilty on two counts after deliberating about 90 minutes.

The jurors held that Maragon had shown falsely in testimony before the senate investigating committee when he said he had only one bank account and when he said he was not employed by a private firm while on a state department mission to Greece in 1945-46.

Compromise On Rent Control Shapes Up

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(INS)—A six-month compromise shaped up today on rent control extension.

It was learned that the Senate Banking committee, lukewarm on the administration's request for a one year extension, is talking about a possible compromise which would provide:

1. Flat extension of the existing law for six months.
2. Continuance of controls after next Jan. 1 only in those cities or areas in which the council or other governing body requests retention of Federal controls.

Expect Defense Fund Appeal To Be Granted

Secretary Johnson Makes Appeal For 350 Million More

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, April 27—(INS)—Congressional approval of Defense Secretary Johnson's request for an additional $350,000,000 in new funds for the armed forces is regarded as assured today.

Little if any opposition was anticipated when Rep. Mahon (D) Texas, chairman of the Military Appropriations subcommittee, offers the amendment to increase the $13,000,000,000 defense budget.

Action on the increased funds probably will not come until next week when the House will consider the defense budget. It is part of the $29,000,000,000 Omnibus Appropriations bill now before the House.

Made Hurried Trip

Johnson made a hurried journey to capitol hill yesterday to tell the House and Senate Appropriations committees that he favored boosting the military budget in view of recommendations to that effect by the joint chiefs of staff. The House group quickly approved it.

Of the sum requested by Johnson, $300,000,000 would be used for the purchase of additional planes, of which $200,000,000 would be for the air force and $100,000,000 for the navy. The new funds would be in addition to the $2,000,000,000 already in the bill for plane procurement.

In addition, Johnson requested $50,000,000 for the navy for conversion of ships for anti-submarine warfare. He also urged the appropriations committee to restore $203,000,000 cut from various miscellaneous items, such as food, clothing, etc. The group may eliminate part of the cut.

Negotiations On Phone Contract Are In Progress

CLEVELAND, April 27.—(INS)—Joseph A. Beirne, national president of the CIO-Communication Workers of America, believes negotiations between his union and the American Telephons and Telegraph company may produce a satisfactory contract within the next five days.

Beirne pointed out in Cleveland last night that the union had cancelled its threated nation-wide phone strike because of commitments made by A T T and its subsidiaries during New York negotiations.

Although no contracts have been signed yet, he said, those commitments make the need for a general strike "extremely doubtful."

Of course, he added, there is always the possibility that negotiations may break down on some issue still unsettled, in which case a general strike would be called.

Ban Tax Cut On Night Clubs

WASHINGTON, April 27—(INS)—The house ways and means committee refused today to reduce the 20 per cent tax on night club tabs which brings in 40 million dollars yearly in revenue.

The action was tentative subject to reconsideration along with other votes taken by the committee in writing a new tax bill.

The 20 per cent tax is paid on the total bill of patrons frequenting hotels, restaurants, night clubs and roof gardens, which provide entertainment.

Other action taken at today's session was:

Electric commercial heaters—10 per cent manufacturers' tax eliminated.

Bowling alleys, billiard and pool tables—$20 annual occupational tax retained with one exception: tax eliminated on devices operated without charge by non-profit organizations, such as hospitals.

Club dues and initiation fees—20 per cent tax retained.

Coin operating devices—$10 annual occupational tax on amusement devices and $100 annual occupational tax on gambling devices (those dispensing merchandise) retained, with one exception: $10 tax eliminated on one cent coin operating amusement devices.

Leased safety deposit boxes—20 per cent tax retained.

New York Students Demand Wage Boosts For Their Teachers

NEW YORK, April 27—(INS)—Thousands of striking high school students demonstrated outside of 14 schools and at New York's City Hall for the second day in a row today, demanding teacher wage boosts.

More than 20,000 students poured into the city hall area while school officials warned that subversive groups are inciting the demonstrations.

Police said an estimated 11,000 pupils were involved in strikes and demonstrations in Brooklyn, Manhattan and the Bronx.

The demonstrations got underway while the New York City Board of Estimate was to approve raises of from $150 to $250 yearly instead of the requested $600 to $1,200.

Housework Easy Without Nagging Backache

As we get older, stress and strain, overexertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

PROCLAMATION

On Febrruary 23, 1950, Mr. Harold C. Lovre, a member of the House in the 81st Congress, presented House Joint Resolution 422, which provides:

"Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that the period beginning May 1 and ending May 7 of each year be hereby designated as "National Correct Posture Week". The President is authorized and requested to issue annually a proclamation calling upon schools, social organizations and professional groups to cooperate in the observance of such a week by conducting educational campaigns to provide instruction in the acquisition of habits of correct posture and to demonstrate the beneficial effect of correct posture on health."

I, John F. Haven, mayor of the city of New Castle, Pennsylvania, do hereby issue this proclamation designating the period of May 1 to May 7 inclusive as "Correct Posture Week" and call upon the people of New Castle to give heed to their need for good posture as an aid to health and general well being.

position is considered to have been handed a severe setback.

The opposition will have another chance within a few weeks to challenge the government again when the finance bill comes up for consideration in the House of Commons.

It is believed however, that the result of voting then will be similar to yesterdays' balloting, barring of course any great change in attendance because of illness.

The slight margin of victory for the Laborites indicated anew the weak grip the Attlee regime has on any lengthy survival.

The seriousness with which the balloting on the tax measures was viewed was demonstrated by the fact that King George VI received legal advice on what course to follow in event of a government defeat.

proximately 31 miles in length. A five-mile section of line, now operating at 24,000 volts between the Leesburg substation and the McDowell station on the Mercer-Grove City road, will be tied into the new line and form a part of the completed project.

Two New Sub-Stations

The project includes the building of two new substations, one at Stoneboro and another, to be known as the Harlan substation, on the New Castle-Harlansburg road near the old state road. New circuit terminal facilities are to be installed at the Cedar street substation in New Castle and extensive changes will be made at the McDowell substation to accommodate the new facilities. The project is scheduled for completion early in the fall.

The line and the related substation facilities will provide additional capacity to the entire area served by the Pennsylvania Power company in northeastern Lawrence county and eastren Mercer county. This Lawrence county area is now served from the 4,800-volt distribution system and the Mercer county area is supplied at 12,000 volts from the company's Greenville substation.

Big Construction Budget

The new line will supply additional capacity for this rapidly growing rural area, and will supply service to a total of about 7,500 customers. The farm and rural demand for electricity has enjoyed a particularly rapid growth. Not only have many new homes been built in the rural areas, but the many new applications for home and farm electrification have resulted in a greatly increased use of service by existing customers. Reliable indications point to continued growth in this class of service.

The company's construction budget for 1950 totals almost four and a half million dollars. This includes the cost of work done in 1950 on the new 85,000-kilowatt generating unit at the New Castle power plant, which is scheduled for completion in 1952.

EYES ON TITO

If Marshal Tito wants to get in a sneak punch at the Kremlin he has a beautiful chance to do so. Conversely, if he feels like throwing his weight around and putting the United States in a very hot spot, he can do that.

This is a result of the knotty problem presented by the Adriatic seaport of Trieste and the tiny international zone surrounding it. As usual, Russia has stirred things up. Moscow charges that the United States, Britain and France have violated the Italian peace treaty by failure to get their troops out of Trieste. These troops ar still there because Russia has stalled off appointment of a governor and establishment of a free territorial government.

It is really none of Russia's business at all. In the last scrap over Trieste, Russia and Yugoslavia were in the same orbit. Today they are quite the opposite. The issue of the disposition of Trieste is really a problem for Italy and Yugoslavia. Russia's immediate concern is merely one of seeking ways of keeping the United States off balance.

Russia's present demand puts the United States in a bad spot, as it was meant to do. Washington has been pursuing a policy of wooing Tito to the western bloc by means possible, including gifts of millions in cash. Yet siding with Tito on the disposition of Trieste—he would love to annex it—would be resented by Italy and probably weaken that country's anti-communist government.

It will be interesting to see which way Tito decides to play his temporary advantage.

SCORE IN THE TAX GAME

With the baseball season well under way anything pertaining to the national game is of interest. From the economics of baseball comes a striking lesson in taxation. By comparing players salaries in 1931 with those of 1950 it is strikingly brought out to what extent the government has increased the tax load in the last two decades. The players are Babe Ruth and Ted Williams, two great stars.

In 1931 Ruth's salary was $80,000. His take-home pay was $68,535. This year Williams will receive a salary of $125,000. After he settles with Uncle Sam, Williams will have $62,028 left, approximately $6,000 less than Ruth had at a much lower rate of pay. To have a buying power equal to that of Ruth 19 years ago Williams would have to earn $327,000.

Inflation plays a part in this contrast. But one of the great talking points of the fair deal administration is the need of buying power. This is given as an excuse for the grants of public money, for subsidies and increased wages. But increased buying power is short-circuited by increasing taxes, which affect all citizens regardless of their earning capacity. Those with small incomes are penalized through payroll deductions and concealed taxes to create a wide difference between salary and take-home pay.

The fact that stands out is that Williams would need $1,000 a day to put him on an equality in buying power with Ruth, who made $250 a day.

PROGRESS VS. TRADITION

Often it is said of a community that it is provincial to the point of smugness. Much of this comes with age and tradition. The populace becomes sort of set in its ways, in a manner of speaking. People live in the past to the detriment of the present and perhaps the future. They assume that all that is desirable in the way of living is confined to their own sphere of life. Many carry this to a point where it becames obnoxious.

One of the chief charms of the West is that it is too young to have become immersed in tradition. It is still enjoying the thrill and enthusiasm of youth. The people have their eyes on the future, caring little for the past, even forgetting the hardships suffered during pioneer days. Western states are still comparative youngsters, strong, bustling, growing, but unhandicapped by tradition.

ALEUTIANS EXPENDABLE?

In the event of atom war are the Aleutian islands, extending 900 miles toward Russia off Alaska, expendable? In World War II the United States spent millions of dollars and many lives to protect the Aleutians as military bases.

However, informed sources say, the Joint Chiefs of Staff have decided not only to shut down those bases but to let the islands go to the Soviets by default if war comes.

Their thinking, it is said, is that to hold the island bases would cost more than they would be worth, and that if Russia occupies them, it will find itself with a white elephant.

The Aleutians are generally blanketed by the bleakest weather which holds air operations to a minimum.

On top of those toy Geiger counters, we hear an amusement park has installed a Flying Saucer ride. Who said the kids aren't keeping up with us oldsters?

Can't see where the crew of that U. S. sub which made a 21-day submerged journey, had anything on Jonah. During their trip they didn't see much, either.

Germany's Problems To Be Intensified

Sharp intensification of Germany's internal problems was forseen as likely today with reports the big three foreign ministers have decided to subordinate them to those of Asia at their meeting in London next month.

With China written off to the communists and no active aid going to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek on Formosa, London observers have predicted that first attention would be given to Germany, Austria and Trieste.

Change In The Agenda

The new reports indicate, however, that the rising tide of communism in the far east makes a change in the agenda of utmost importance.

It is impossible to predict at the moment just how the problems of Asia are to be tackled.

The whole picture is changing rapidly. By the time the big three assemble, major attention may have been switched from Formosa to some other area on the communist expansion program.

In any case, if the far eastern agenda has been given priority, the repercussions in Germany are certain to be far-reaching and severe.

Not only is the communist youth march on May 28 coming up to disturb the delicate political balance, but the Soviets have started "purge trials" in the east to discredit the allies.

The first defendant has been Leo Herwegen, former labor minister of Saxony, who confessed to "economic sabotage" and "crimes against the people" in a show trial at Dessau.

Face Charges

He and his co-defendants are charged with transferring 100 million marks from their Soviet zone utilities company to a west German affiliate.

The pattern became clear when the communist state prosecutor alleged that the acts were committed "at the direction of Anglo-American capitalism".

There have been indications for some time that the Soviets planned legal proceedings of this sort in an attempt to show that western Germany is being exploited by the allies, there probably will be numerous other trials, all on the same inevitable pattern.

The dangerous part about them is the timing and the circumstances. Western German Chancellor Dr. Konrad Adenauer is to some extent at odds with the allies for various reasons. He is standing firm against communism. But he is said to fear the present attitude of the western high commission may promote a new German nationalism which could logically effect a "marriage of convenience" with communism.

Would Disturb Europe

What this would do to disturb European equilibrium is easy if uncomfortable to imagine.

The London reports of far eastern priority apparently are based upon a decision by experts that any changes in the occupational statutes for Germany can wait until the fall.

This is diametrically opposed to the opinions and of course the desires of west German leaders.

They feel that now—five years after the war has ended—that Germany can take its place in the European economy only if there is drastic revision of the occupational status.

It is clear from recent dispatches that west German leaders are disturbed over two actions by the high commission that they claim lie outside its jurisdiction.

These were vetoes of two internal measures passed by the Bundesrat or federal assembly. One dealt with a civil service law and the other with the income tax.

Undue Interference

The high commission is being charged with undue interference in Germany's internal affairs. Critics charge, with or without justification, that there is nothing in the occupational statutes empowering the commission to exercise such vetoes.

If government indignation filters down through the rank and file of the nation, there may be more trouble.

Certainly elements seeking to profit personally from German disunity will make much of the affair. On top of this, they will pile the charge that while exercising revere restraint on one hand, the allies are throwing Germany "to the wolves" on the other.

They will say that American, British and French interests in the far east are being allowed to take precedence over Germany's present and future wellbeing. As in almost every international complication since the war, there is certain to be disquiet somewhere.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

SELF-CONSCIOUS YOUTH FACES TROUBLES

The lonely teen-aged youth who feels himself withdrawing from his fellows to escape the fears he may have in their presence worries the while because of what he supposes may be thought or said of him for being alone so much. As he runs from one source of fear he bumps into another. The less he has mingled with others the more awkward he feels when he does. He knows he is considered queer. His self-consciousness is written on his face and revealed in his manners, even in his movements, breathing and speech. The response or supposed response by others to his queerness magnifies his self-consciousness. Upward go his difficulties.

Moreover, human nature is pretty cruel whether operating through a person six, sixteen or forty. The strong lord it over the weak and gang up on him. Those youths who suppose they have ample friends not only will ignore the lonely boy or girl but, when together, will joke about his queerness. He overhears some of their fun-making remarks about him and espies their ridiculing smiles. Then he invents with his imagination many times more of such things than ever happen. He envies them their apparent happiness and belittles himself for his loneliness; or he pities himself for being treated so cruelly.

Informal Group

When he is at a party or in an informal group at home, at a drug store, or elsewhere, he is over-anxious lest he might do or say something ridiculous. Wishing so much to appear at ease, he supposes he should talk and be quick at repartee and wise cracks. Perhaps he keeps thinking: "What can I say What can I do? Why can't I also say something clever?"

So absorbed in himself he may not hear what others say and may fail, therefore, to respond to it at all or as others do. When he ventures to speak, what he says may be so unrelated to what the rest have been dwelling on as to seem absurd. Then he senses their reaction and becomes more upset. When at last he is alone he may rehearse the happening in the group. He may dwell on the mistakes and discomforts made before the carefree, happy, glib-tongued other youths in that group. Or he may, in the temporary bliss of being alone, sit and dream of himself as the life of the party. Neither procedure will prepare him to be happier next time in such a group. (My bulletin, "The Timid, Lonely Youth," may be had in a stamped envelope sent me at 235 East 46th Street, New York, N. Y.)

Lonely Youth

Now we won't help this timid, lonely youth by telling him it is his own fault he has no friends. Already he probably has grown disgusted with himself. He needs somebody to help him get a foothold so he may be able to climb out of the slough of despondency.

Any discussion with him about his problem should avoid direct or implied blame. It should be calm, unemotional, objective. Help him see that when he is in a group he need not worry about talking much or scarcely at all, that others who talk glibly are pleased to have good listeners; that when he centers his attention on himself and what he might say; he cannot be alert to what others are saying or doing and therefore can't respond enthusiastically and pleasantly to them; that, on the contrary he may then speak or act queerly. More on this tomorrow.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

The Christian Science Monitor tells about the sweet little housewife who found her husband tearing up the den. "What's the idea?" she demanded. "I've lost a twenty dollar bill," he explained. "I was sure I put it in this desk drawer in case of emergency." "You can stop looking," his wife informed him. "I had to use that twenty dollars this morning. The emergency came C.O.D."

Major Putney May, the Wall Street statistical wizard, took his daughter Patricia to the opening of a lavish Broadway musical. To the conservative Major's embarrassment, the show proved raucous and vulgar. Toward the end of act one, he confessed to his daughter, "I'm sorry I brought you, Pat. This is not a show for a young lady like you." "Don't give up so early, Pop," the unperturbed Pat assured him. "Maybe the second act will be livelier."

Earl Wilson announces that it was none other than William Shakespeare, in "Winter's Tale," who first defined a Broadway gossip columnist as "a snapper-up of unconsidered trifles."

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

"I'LL BE THERE!"

"I'll be there!" he used to say
When we called on him to aid.
Early, late or any day,
"I'll be there!" the answer made.

Busy? Yes, but willing too
In all useful work to share.
Was there something he could do,
His reply was: "I'll be there!"

No one ever heard him say:
"I don't have the time to spare."
Name the task and right away
Came the answer: "I'll be there."

Son of mine, when comes the call
To assist, no matter where,
Give the answer best of all.
Say it promptly: "I'll be there!"

From Me To You

By MESEEALL

'TIS TIME FOR GRANDMA'S TONIC

When willow stems are soft and tender cords—
Just beginning to turn green by the creek;
When their tawny framed buds are silver lined,
Then it's time to watch for Grandma's tonic ....

When maples bud, and jonquils are in bloom;
When you've shed your long winter underwear,
And the peepers are peeping in the gloom,
Then it's time for you to beware—beware!

When cold chilling winds spell doom to fruit,
As winter backs away ungratefully,
Then it's time for the old brown jar, so cute—
For Grandma's tonic time is drawing nigh.

Now just in case you've forgotten the taste
And memory has failed the fumes that arose,
Just take a bit of powered sulphur, baste
With baking molasses—then hold your nose.

But if you are smart you'll eat your lettuce,
And lots of fruit till you burst your seams,
For if Grandma comes with that tonic fuse
All the stars in your crown will need new beams.

VOICES OF AMERICA

Washington Calling

(By Marquis Childs)

Recent Statement Challenged

WASHINGTON, April 27.—That old expression about a new broom sweeping clean could apply to the changes that are taking place in the defense establishment. Thomas K. Finletter is taking over as secretary of the air force and Stuart Symington as head of the National Securities Resources board.

It is hardly a secret that, in his last months as secretary for air, Symington was in sharp disagreement on several issues with Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson. It is also hardly a secret that certain decisions taken at the top have had the result of giving the nation less air defense for each dollar spent than could be obtained if some of the political fat was heroically cut away.

Some time ago in this space it was stated that defense funds spent on the air national guard were to a considerable degree wasted. The amount being spent this year is $114,690,000 and the figure for 1951 is $103,935,000.

Protest Is Made

A number of air national guard officers have written to me to challenge this statement. They protest that they are honestly trying to contribute to America's defense, and they undoubtedly are. They want to know on what basis of expert knowledge I passed this judgment.

I was not, of course, trying to give any personal judgment because I do not have the expert knowldege to make such a judgment. I was reporting the opinions of high-ranking officers of all three services. Air force officers might, as the national guard maintains, be jealous of the independence of the air national guard. But the same opinion is expressed in private by men in the other services with expert knowledge of the nation's over-all defense needs and how they are being met. The Gray board after a careful and exhaustive investigation recommended against independence for the air national guard.

Quite apart from the money being spent, this is a serious matter. For the defense of America the air force in being includes the air groups of the air national guard. If those groups do not measure up to standards of efficiency and performance, then our defenses are weaker than we think.

Some May Measure Up

In all probability some of the groups do measure up to the standards rigidly enforced in the air force. But a further check makes it pretty clear that many do not; that some groups are hardly more than holiday occasions for World War II airmen who like to fly.

In Virginia charges were brought against Major L. H. Waters, Jr., commanding officer of the Virginia air national guard. He was accused by officers in his command of a whole series of irregularities concerning the use of guard planes and government property. Waters' response was to dismiss the complaining officers and he was promptly cleared by the adjutant-general of the state.

At the same time Civil Aeronautics Administrator D. W. Rentzel issued a complaint against Waters charging 24 separate violations of civil air regulations. Most of the violations charged occurred while Waters was leading an acrobatic team flying F-47s in a series of air shows at county fairs around the state. Waters was pilot of the national guard plane that former Governor William M. Tuck used during his term of office.

Instances Reported

Numerous instances have been reported of the way in which governors use national guard planes for their private and personal use. When Governor James (Kissing Jim) Folsom of Alabama was paying court to one of the daughters of Governor Earl Warren he flew to California and back in a guard plane. The cost of flying that plane is estimated conservatively at $120 an hour.

Other governors are more scrupulous. They try to avoid use of guard planes for other than official purposes that might be justified.

The national guard bureau is hardly in a position to rebuke governors who have air guard funds spent on putting plush interiors in the planes they have for their personal use. Maj. Gen. Kenneth F. Cramer, chief of the national guard bureau, had $68,000 spent on converting a plane for his own use. It should be added that part of this went int- radio equipment rather than plush.

Some of the letter writers said, why talk about this waste when so much government money is being wasted in other ways? This is apparently on the theory that a little more waste won't do any harm.

But any waste of defense funds,

The House committee which proposed dropping excise taxes on camera film is still waiting to see what will develop.

It's a start, but three mothers wired "Come out of the dark room . . . we'll be waiting in the nursery with our 'luxury' baby oil."

But these babies don't care whether your baby gets oiled or not but any friend of a film pack is a friend of theirs.

In fact more politicians would have come to the American Newspaper Publishers' Association convention if they thought the publishers had brought their cameraman with them.

General Ike made a good speech to the editors and publishers, telling them never to let anything stand in the way of getting the facts . . . they're making a note of it in case he ever gets to be president.

Right now there's a lot of stuff stirring in Washington they'd love to get the facts on but they're in the files . . . or if they're not facts what are they doing in the files?

Folks Of Fame

Associate Justice Tom Clark was born in Dallas, Tex., Sept. 23, 1899. He was admitted to the bar in Texas and became district attorney of Dallas county, then special attorney of the bureau of war risk litigation, Department of Justice. He was co-ordinator of alien enemy control of the Western Defense Command and chief of civilian staff for Japanese war relocation during 1942, in World War II. He rose from assistant United States attorney general in 1945. He now has a still higher position in Uncle Sam's government—a lifetime job.

King Philip, Indian Chief, was chief sachem of the Wampanoag Indians in America. He succeeded his father, Massasoit, as sachem. His name was given him by the English. When the English immigrants grew strong and began to meddle in Indian affairs, they demanded that his Indians should surrender their arms. He was willing to comply, but when three Indians were executed for an alleged murder, he could not hold the tribe in check, and there were outbreaks of violence. His wife and young son were captured and an Indian traitor guided the English to the king's hiding place, where he was killed. The conflict is named for him.

Only Once A Day Now

(By HENRY McLEMORE)

If penny postal cards didn't come so high I would send one off to Postmaster General Jesse M. Donaldson today congratulating him on behalf of all husbands for his new economy move.

In case you don't move around in post office circles, and are not in the special delivery, general delivery, and parcel post swim, this is what the economy slash does.

It cuts the delivery of mail in residential areas to once a day, curtails the working hours of postal clerks, and scrambles the collecting hour signs on street corner boxes so thoroughly that no one can be sure when a letter dropped in the big green hamper will get picked up and sent off by train, plane, or canoe.

Can't Get Excited

This new system will save millions of dollars, but it is not the saving which makes me want to drop to my knees and bless Postmaster General Donaldson. I simply can't get excited when our government says it is saving money. My brief existence as a citizen has proved (to me, anyway) that the savings are never turned back to the ones it was saved from. If the government ever announced that if it saved 200 million dollars it would divide it equally among the taxpayers, why, you would see the most economy-minded folk in the world.

No, what makes my heart so warm over the post office slash that I almost have to pour ice water over it to keep it from burning me up, is the fact that from here on out I am not going to get as much mail as in the past.

For every letter I have ever received announcing the death of a near-forgotten uncle who went to Australia as a youth and struck it rich by being the first one to think of making cold-weather hats from kangaroo pouches (with a small kangaroo on top that whirls when the wearer runs toward grammar school so as not to be tardy) and left his fabulous wealth to me, I have received 4,000,000 letters that have isinglass fronts.

It Really Means Grief

And don't tell me that you don't know what a letter with a front patterned after the front of an old type stove means. It means grief. It always has a sum of figures with printed directions to pay the total in the right hand column, and usually a nasty little reminder that you have undoubtedly overlooked this and a remittance would be appreciated.

There are some husbands—usually presidents of big corporations—who have no fear of going to the mailbox. They don't care what kind of letters are nestling in the galvanized container. But not most of us. I would swear that it has been a year since I have returned from the mailbox without cold perspiration stippling my forehead.

Now, thanks to Postmaster General Donaldson, I will only undergo the rigors of cold perspiration once a day, instead of twice.

If he would only make it illegal to send wedding announcements, school graduation announcements, and requests from great, big, wealthy stores for payment of trifling purchases you have made from them, then I would go whole hog, give not a fig for expense, and spend a penny for a card to declare my everlasting, undying ratitude.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

Human progress is measured not in kilowatts, horse power, or miles per hour, but in man's relationship to man.

Today our own sovereign State of Connecticut announces that another person will "pay his debt to Society" in a few days.

He murdered a man during a holdup. He was tried and convicted. He appealed. He lost.

So now he will go to the electric chair.

Hereabouts that is supposed to be the nicest way of executing a human being.

However, the States of California and Nevada—and perhaps a few others—have a much more modern and much more soothing way of collecting murderers' debts to Society.

It's the lethal chamber. You have no idea how wonderful THAT is.

I am assured that it is practically painless—and very clean. From what they say it's almost a pleasure to pay one's debt to Society—although the temporary tenants of the chamber have never testified to that.

Well, I have seen electrocutions at Sing Sing. I have seen hangings at San Quentin (before they had the new method). I have witnessed a lethal chamber killing at Carson City.

I hope you will never in your life have to be present at any executions, no matter how streamlined they are.

I shall not go into details. But I assure you that I am glad I don't have to "cover" any of those affairs any longer.

I have seen case-hardened detectives and wardens blanch and turn green as the trap fell or the switch was turned. I have seen them get stupid drunk after in was all over, just to forget.

And every officer of the law whom I have interviewed condemned capital punishment as an absolutely ineffective and barbarous instrument of enforcing the law.

Oh yes, we have perfected mechanical wonders for ourselves.

But why, on God's earth, doesn't someone discover or invent something to streamline and improve the human soul?

Are we so primitive that the only way we can be good is by being threatened with fines, with jail, with "an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth?"

Why is it that almost everything that comes from our government has to be accompanied by the threat of a $500 fine or six months in prison or both?"

Look at your tax forms. Look at your census blanks. Look on almost every street corner. Fine or Jail. Threats. Fear of punishment.

Is that progress? Is that civilization?

Does that scare people?

It seems that the higher they raise the punishment the more and the beastlier crimes are committed.

One would almost think that we take pleasure in daring the authorities to catch us.

Civilization — real civilization — will have arrived when people are motivated not by fear but by CONSCIENCE.

Changing or repairing tires along the highway usually is a dangerous task. Precautions should be taken to keep all occupants of the disabled car off the main traveled portion of the highway. Accident statistics show that serious accidents have resulted when occupants of the disabled car have crowded onto the highway and disregarded oncoming traffic.

Report Fires Immediately

Loss Of Minutes May Prove Costly

If the average time in discovering and reporting a fire were cut in half, property destruction and loss of life undoubtedly could be reduced more than proportionately.

That's the contention of Fire Chief Herman F. Steinbrink, of New Castle, who says even best-equipped and most efficient fire fighters can be badly handicapped by excessively delayed alarms.

Studies show that many serious fires remain undiscovered for approximately an hour or more on the average, and even after discovery alarms are frequently delayed from several minutes to as much as one hour.

One of the little understood factors is that it is better to promptly turn in an alarm from a fire alarm box than to take time out to fight the blaze. Invariably, the fire fighters could have responded to the alarm and subdued the blaze within the time it takes for the individual to realize the fire has gotten out of hand.

"Many disasters can be averted by the simple expedient of letting the qualified fire fighters handle the fires, no matter how small they start. If everyone played it safe, and didn't try to handle the emergency himself, the incidence of major conflagrations would be greatly curtailed."

Trying Themselves Out

What fun they were having! A little group of boys and girls, the youngest perhaps four and the oldest around eight, were playing together in front of our apartment building the other day. First, they tried to see how many times each could hop before putting down the other leg. Then Donny, in six jumps, went from the edge of the building to the curb. That set them all off, each trying to outdo the other. Even the four-year-old had her turn.

Hopscotch, mumblety peg and jacks, running, jumping and climbing, shouting, whistling—these are just a few of the activities through which children try themselves out. To climb higher or to whistle louder are real accomplishments to the growing, developing youngster. It's in these informal unorganized activities that children discover what they can do well and what they need to practice. Skill in anyone of them is approved by other youngsters. You "belong" if you can keep up with the gang.

Sometimes, we parents interfere. We may be afraid that they will hurt themselves if they climb, rough-house a bit or engage in other strenuous activity. On occasion, we may have to step in. As often as possible, however, we should let the kids try themselves out.

PILL CENTER

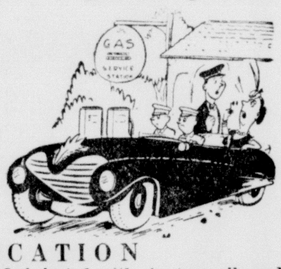

BUFFALO, N. Y. —— (INS)—A new kind of world fashion center —for pills and tablets, of all things —has been established in Buffalo. It is housed in the pharmaceutical plant of the Arner Company, which turns out annually close to two billion of the medicated pellets. Their consumer acceptance in domestic and world markets hinges greatly on how colorfully "smart" they are dressed, according to Roy H. Clark, chief chemist. Only in the past 50 years has color zoomed into paramount importance in pill sales. Before that, most of the pills were in the natural color of the medicaments. Now the range is so great, Arner alone produces them in more than 2,000 tints and shades.

$39 Million In Road Contracts In Four Months

HARRISBURG, April 27.—With a total of 74 contracts in the amount of $38,894,709 awarded between January 1 and April 15, the further improvement of Pennsylvania's highway system is off to a flying start, Secretary of Highways Ray F. Smock announced today.

This total will be further increased by lettings now indicated for the remaining Friday of April and each Friday in May.

In addition, work is continuing on 90 contracts in the amount of $52,799,819.14 under way but not completed on January 1 of this yaer.

Despite an unfavorable spring with its snow, ice and freezing temperatures particularly across the northern half of the state, many contractors have started operations.

The Detour Bulletin of the State Highway Department for February 17, reveals 10 new operations were started bringing the total to 44.

By St. Patrick's Day 14 additional jobs were launched and three were completed bringing the net to 55. This number was raised by projects necessitating detours to 88 by April 15, when the highway department started bimonthly publication of the Detour Bulletin.

"Where conditions permit, single lane traffic has been placed in effect so as to avoid a longer detour route around the construction," Smock said.

"The department's plans to further extend its record construction and other improvements during 1950 inevitably will create temporary inconvenience to motorists.

"But they may rest assured the department is doing everything possible to avoid unnecessary traffic difficulties."

Today's Fashion Flash

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK, April 27.—(INS)—The coat-dress is the coming dress for fall.

New York designers are keeping mum today on their autumn fashion plans, but wardrobe-word leaks out . . . and the word is this:

Frocks that look like coats, with deep V necklines filled in by vestees, will be top trends next season.

Coat-dresses will usually be slim, with long narrow sleeves and slenderly draped skirts. The bib, vestee, or lingerie touches in the neckline will decide the formality or casualness of the ensemble.

Making Progress On Re-Zoning Plan

Progress toward the re-zoning of New Castle is being made according to D. R. Tredinnick Jr. of the Institute of Local and State Government of the University of Pennsylvania which has contracted to re-zone the city.

He said today that he anticipates that basic land uses and study of surveys will have been completed this week.

Attaches of the institute will meet with council in city hall May 17, when the re-zoning will be discussed further.

Methuselah is said to have lived 969 years.

Two Are Acquitted After Trial For Cancer Clinic

PITTSBURGH, April 27.—(INS)—Philip Drosnes and Mrs. Lillian Lazenby were ordered acquitted Thursday by Judge Jesse C. Long of charges of conducting a Pittsburgh cancer clinic without a license.

The judge ruled the state had presented insufficient evidence to maintain its charges.

This is the second trial for Drosnes and Mrs. Lazenby. They were convicted at a first trial but a court en banc granted them a new trial because of insufficient evidence.

Big Three To Discuss Asia As Top Issue

PARIS, April 27.—(INS)—An unimpeachable diplomatic source said by telephone from London that top priority will be given at the forthcoming Big Three conference to Asia.

Britain's spokesman among deputies now preparing for the May parley was said to believe the German problem is not of paramount importance and can be given second place on the agenda.

The experts now conferring reportedly agreed not to advocate any revision of the statutes of occupation in Germany until next autumn. The Big Three foreign ministers, however, might reach a different decision.

It is known, meanwhile, that the French government is determined to raise the question of ownership of German coal, iron and steel industries at the Big Three meeting.

The allied high commission recently voted two-to-one in favor of giving the Bonn government jurisdiction over these industries. This decision was vetoed by the French.

AMOS TEACHES ABOUT WORSHIP

SINCERITY AND PURITY WANTED BY JEHOVAH

Bethel.

"But let justice roll down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream."—Amos 5:24.

Scripture—Amos 4:4; 5:4-9, 14, 15, 21-24

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

How many of the millions of people who go to church regularly and kneel and pray, repeating the words of the service, are thinking about what they are doing? How many are thinking of their business, their domestic problems, their social affairs, while they repeat, parrot-like, the sacred words, or pray to their Maker?

Many are sincere and devout, of course, but many are not. They simply go through the forms decreed by their religious service with their minds on other things.

There are even those who attend religious services regularly, serve on the boards or other governing bodies of their churches, seemingly deeply religious persons; but who, in their daily lives are anything but righteous.

So it was in the time of Amos, who left his flocks and trees to warn the people of Israel that they were on their way to doom unless they altered their manner of living and worshiping.

These lessons on the prophet are rather difficult for little children. The teacher must try to adapt the ideas contained in them to the children's own lives—at home, in school, Sunday school or on the playground.

In his fourth chapter Amos compares the people of Israel—especially the women—to sleek, well-fed cattle who roamed the pastures near the Sea of Galilee. Women have such tremendous influence over the lives of the people of their countries. If they are coarse, with loose moral standards, thinking only of themselves and their pleasures, never of the poor or the sorrowing, how can that country's standards be very high?

Amos pictures how faithfully the people went to Bethel, Gilgal and Beersheba—places of sacred associations— on pilgrimages. They offered sacrifices, paid their tithes, but even in doing these things they did not strictly obey the spirit of their religion.

Terrible calamities had befallen this people — famine, drought, blight, pestilence, war—but at this moment of prosperity they forgot that punishment might again overtake them, and proceeded to live as they pleased, forgetful of the wrath of Jehovah.

"For thus saith Jehovah unto the house of Israel, Seek ye Me, and ye shall live; but seek not Bethel, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to Beersheba; for Gilbal shall surely go into captivity, and Bethel shall come to naught.

"Seek Jehovah, and ye shall live; lest He break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and it devour, and there be none to quench it in Bethel. Ye who turn justice to wormwood, and cast down righteousness to the earth."

Amos reminded them of their righteous God, in beautiful, poetic words:

"Seek Him that maketh the Pleiades and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night; that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth; Jehovah is His name."

The prophets of old spoke in no uncertain terms of what the Lord required of His people, and all agreed that God wanted sincerity in worship, and right living and these only were what pleased Him. Amos quotes Him:

"I hate, I despise your feasts, and I will take no delight in your solemn assemblies (the feasts and pilgrimages).

"Yea, though ye offer Me your brunt-offerings, and meal-offerings, I will not accept them; neither will I regard the peace-offerings of your hearts. Take thou away from Me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.

"But let justice roll down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream."

These words were uttered between 760 and 770 B. C., and still justice is not being done in the earth, and people cry aloud for it, praying that fear, hunger, destitution of all kinds be banished from the earth. God the Father will help us to accomplish it if only we will hear Him and do our part.

TEETH AND BONES

Teeth and bones are very important parts of the body, even if a bone head is not so good.

It takes a lot of lime to make good bones. Milk supplies lime in a very acceptable form.

Buster and Tillie should learn to like milk and cheese so that they will have plenty of lime in their bone factory.

There are so many kinds of cheese that they can surely find some to suit their taste.

A nice cheese sandwich with a lollipop is better than the lollipop alone.

Molasses candy has a lot of lime and iron in it. Buster needs iron in his blood.

Spend $143,000,000 For Mental Health Program In State

HARRISBURG, April 27.—(INS)—State Welfare Secretary William C. Brown says that by the end of 1950 approximately $143,000,000 will have been allocated in the four-year program for revitalizing Pennsylvania's mental health program.

The net effect will be to add approximately 10,000 beds in state mental institutions which have a rated capacity of 35,000 patients but house about 44,500, Brown reported at the beginning of Mental Health Week.

He emphasized that Pennsylvania has done much to improve conditions "since its mental hospital program was held up to public condemnation" several years ago.

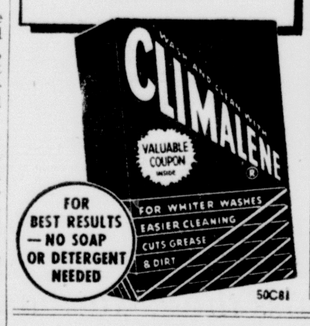

"What is being done in rebuilding our mental health program," Brown said, "cannot be accomplished in a week, a month, a year or even in the space of a few short years. The problem is too vast and complex.

"But we are striding forward in tremendous leaps and the importance of this cannot in any sense be minimized, especially if we stop to realize that one in fewer that every 20 persons is concerned directly in one way or another by mental health," he declared.

Mental institutions throughout the state have scheduled open house in connection with Mental Health Week observance.

Complete loss of voice sometimes occurs when a person wants to escape a problem, according to a speech authority.

Sharon Water Rates Will Be Increased

HARRISBURG, April 27—(INS)—Rates of 11,598 customers of the Shenango Valley Water Co., of Sharon, will increase $96,500 annually under a new tariff effective May 1.

The Public Utility Commission has approved a 26 per cent increase in metered rates, and a 25 per cent increase in flat rates. Public and private fire protection rates will not change.

Commissioner John B. Conly, of Pittsburgh, voted against the increase.

The company serves Sharon, Farrell, Wheatland Borough and Hickory Township in Mercer county.

Dr. Hutchison said the buildings listed for demolition are Martien and Powell halls, both more than 80 years old.

He added that another building in Old Dorm Row, Fayerweather hall, more than 50 years old, also will be razed later.

Old Lindbergh Home To Be Used To House Youthful Offenders

TRENTON, N. J., April 27.—(INS)—Sanford Bates, commissioner of the State Department of Institutions and agencies, announces that the former home of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh near Hopewell, will be used starting in June for short-term treatment to teenage law breakers.

The home is the scene of the fatal kidnaping of Charles Augustus Lindbergh, Jr., 3-year-old son of the famous aviator by Bruno Richard Hauptmann in March, 1931.

Colonel Lindbergh moved from the home shortly after the kidnaping, and gave it to the state of New Jersey several years ago.

The project is based on the belief that certain youthful offenders, away from reformatory atmosphere, could be safely restored to probation in the community after spending three or four months in a carefully supervised place.

Ellwood Club Will Present 'Two Blind Mice

The Ellwood City Junior Woman's club will sponsor the highly successful play "Two Blind Mice" on Tuesday evening, May 2, in the Lincoln high school auditorium.

This New York comedy smash hit of last season recently completed a favorable "run" at the Pittsburgh Playhouse and is beginning its "Playhouse on Tour" productions.

The play, authorized by Samuel Spewack is a tumultuous comedy centered around two little old ladies caught in the bureaucratic whirl of the national capital. They run a mythical office of "Seeds and Standards" and continue to do so even though the office has been abolished for several years. A highly amusing point of the comedy occurs when a snooping senator finds the army, navy, air force and statae department deceived into believing that the little old ladies are conducting a top secret experiment with themselves as a protective front to baffle the enemy.

Johnson Asks Greater Fund For Defense

WASHINGTON, April 27—(INS)—Defense Secretary Johnson asked Congress for an additional 300 million dollars for air power and 50 million dollars more for anti-submarine defense in view of U.S.-Soviet relations.

The secretary said his new request was a result of a re-appraisal of world issues including the Soviet atomic explosion, the fall of China to the Reds, the serious situation in Asia and Russia's shooting down of the American Naval plane over the Baltic.

In addition to the new request, Johnson asked restoration of 200 million dollars cut from the military budget by the House appropraitions committee.

Johnson said he was adding 24 million dollars "out of savings made elsewhere" for Army procurement to speed up research and development of "certain weapons."

Th administration's military program for the year beginning July 1 has been $13,911,127,000. This included a $1,350,000,000 plane purchase program.

Unemployment Probe May Be Sidetracked

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(INS)—Behind-the-scenes maneuvering on Capitol Hill threatened today to kill off a Congressional investigation of unemployment.

Rep. Kennedy (D) Mass., who sought the investigation, stated that it might be called off "because some people are afraid it might be harmful to the administration."

Kennedy, a son of former ambassador to Great Britain Joseph Kennedy, didn't say who "some people" were. He told a newsman, however, that a decision in the investigation will be made Monday. The House Labor Committee is due to meet here.

Shortly before he disclosed that the jobless probe might be scrapped, Kennedy conferred with Labor Committee Chairman Lesinski (D) Mich., and House Majority Leader McCormack (D) Mass.

DOGWOODS ON THE KING'S CHAPEL ROAD

SPRING PARADE

When wild flowers are mentioned, the average person almost immediately thinks of absent minded professors, sighing lovers or peripatetic groups of garden club members. Summarily, the real significance of wild flowers and especially of the early blooming ones, is lost.

One need not be a philosopher nor an expert botanist to appreciate the wild flowers. They are not only interesting for their beauty, but also because of their unusual adaptions, forms and habits of growth. From a philosopher's viewpoint, too, their blooming symbolizes hope for the morrow and the promise of fruit for the future.

Loveliest of Seasons

Even the most insensitive person looks forward to the appearance of the early spring flowers because it marks the debut of the loveliest of seasons. The lengthening days, the warming sun, the greening earth have a universal appeal. Most everyone, regardless of temperment or interest, is seized with a vague longing to be out-of-doors in contact with the good earth. Some flowers bloom long before the coming of spring. Probably the best known of these early bloomers is the skunk cabbage, the ill-scented plant blooming any time after the first of the year. It is interesting for its unusual appearance as well as for its disagreeable ordor. The pinkish-lavender flowers are enclosed by a green and purple hood, the temperature inside of the hood often rising several degrees higher than that outside. Even in midwinter, if it isn't too cold, little flies may be seen feeding on the pollen with which the flowers are abundantly provided. A most unusual and question provoking centerpiece for a dinner table is a clump of skunk cabbage. Try it. There is no odor unless the plant is crushed or abraded.

Most Delicately Beautiful

One of the most delicately beautiful and evanescent of our earlier flowers is the common bloodroot; clumps of the white, golden centered blooms carpeting much of the late April woodland. When the plant first appears each of the irregularly scalloped leaves is wrapped tightly about a flower stalk. When broken the stem "bleeds," the roots also exuding a reddish juice. Since the ancients attached curative values to some unusual characteristic of plants, then, of course, the reddish juice suggested its use in the treatment of circulatory disorders. However, the unusual thing about bloodroot is that modern medicine actually found it valuable as a stimulant and tonic.

This is the time of the year when trout fishers trod acres of dogtooth violets or adder's tongues, as they ply their favorite streams. Like many of the wild flowers it is misnamed, since it is really a member of the lily family. Its peculiarly splotched leaves suggest a name that has been adopted by many, especially by the trout fishing clan. Examine a leaf and see if it doesn't resemble the flanks of our native brook trout and almost at once suggesting the very appropriate name of trout lily.

Abundance of Wild Flowers

Many sections of Lawrence county are blessed with an abundance of wild flowers. The glens along stretches of the Slippery Rock extending from Kennedy's to Eckerd's mills and beyond, will shortly be carpeted with great beds of trilliums. Incomparably blue Virginia Bluebells or mertensia may be found in the corners of pastures and fields along the Little Neshannock. The thin woodlands above what is locally known as Cottage Grove near Fayette are especially favored by it.

It would pay any one appreciative of natural beauty to travel the dirt road starting from King's Chapel on the Pulaski road and thence to the Shenango river near the Harbor bridge. The woodlands on both sides of the highway are aglow with the great white bracts (erroneously called flowers) of the dogwood.

In company with the more showy members of the spring parade is a profusion of lesser ones such as spring beautys, violets, mayapples, quaker ladies or bluets, marsh marigold, anemones and a host of others. And remember that one flower in the bush is worth an incalculable number in the hand.

England Expects Big Milk Surplus

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(INS)—The Agriculture department reports that England expects a milk surplus of 10 million gallons a month above what is needed for consumption.

English dairymen are establishing new monthly records, the department says. The total production of milk in England and Wales during March is expected to be around 138 million gallons. Fluid consumption should be about 117 million gallons.

Another factor in the surplus is that the English are drinking less milk. Consumption has been on the down-grade for the past several months the figures show. Non-priority users in England consume about two and a half pints a week.

Some of the methods proposed to ease the surplus problem include a "drink more milk" campaign, reduct milk prices, or allow farmers to separate a portion of the milk they produce.

Thirty per cent of the population of the United States is allergic to various foodstuff, statistics indicate.

NEW PROCESS SAVES

PHILADELPHIA, April 27. — (INS)—Use of a "broaching" process reportedly is reducing production time and costs on all kinds of products.

O. W. Bonnafe, chief research engineer, LaPointe Machine Tool Co., recently brought this to light at a meeting of the American Society of Tool Engineers at Philadelphia.

Using the rifling of gun barrels as an example, Bonnafe said the process cut the time needed from over one-half hour per barrel to a mere 28 seconds.

Bonnafe added that on a large internal clutch, installation of broaching equipment paid for itself in time saved after the first few dozen parts had been produced.

NICKNAMED

EAST LANSING, Mich. — (INS)—Michigan State was given its "Spartan" nickname by George Alderton, veteran sports editor of the hometown Lansing State Journal.

Erie County Expects Light Primary Vote

ERIE, Pa., April 27.—(INS)—Erie county election officials predict today that only about half as many voters that cast ballots last November will appear at the polls for the May primaries this year.

Officials blamed a lack of interest and confusion in ordinary primaries for the decrease in voters.

Last November the county recorded 89,780 persons registered, but only 68,145 voted. Only about 38 to 42 per cent of the registered voters are expected to cast ballots in May.

C.E. Members Have Meeting

District Gathering Held Near Prospect

Members of the Western Pennsylvania District of Christian Endeavor Unions assembled recently at beautiful Camp Lutherlyn, 9 miles west of Prospect, with officers of the State Christian Endeavor.

After devotional, members were assigned to various classes by James Thompson, president of Western District. Classes were led by state officers. Talks were made on Christian Endeavor work by a number of the officers.

An interesting address was made by Warren Hoopes, general secretary of State C. E. He spoke of the Christian Endeavor "Caravan" which is traveling throughout the state. Those interested in this endeavor will give a week or ten days of their time to further the work of Christian Endeavor.

A delicious lunch was served to the group. The remainder of the evening was devoted to the Audio-Visual program under Lester Case. He showed movies in connection with the State Convention at York to be held July 6 to 9. The movie had exerpts of speeches by Dr. Louis Evans, Hollywood, Calif.; Dr. Ross Stoner; and Dr. Norman W. Paullin of Philadelphia. These men will be present at the York Convention. A large delegation is expected there.

Closing meditation was by Paul Hurley, pres. elect and state C. E. president. Consecration service was led by Alex Taggart 2nd vice president.

Prospect Presbyterian church had charge of the C. E. meeting. The conferences were led by Rev. Lester Case; field secretary, Warren Hoopes; general secretary, Paul Hurley; Allan Tucker, president; Herman Brackbill, treasurer, and Gordon McMordie, treasurer-elect.

Next meeting of the Lawrence County C. E. will be on Thursday evening, May 4, at the Y.W.C.A. hall.

FLU EPIDEMIC

It is estimated that the influenza epidemic of 1918 killed 550,000 people in the United States.

Shenango 4-H Has Initial Meeting

Members of the newly organized 4-H club of Shenango school met at the home of Barbara Maxwell this week.

President Patty Jo Currie opened the meeting, with the members repeating the 4-H club pledge. The secretary's report was read by Carol Coultas. Four new members were welcomed to the group. The "Shenango Busy Bees" will become the official name of the club.

Patty Jo Currie gave an interesting report on "A Girl's Crowning Glory." Miss Patricia Kelley, home economics extension representative, told the club about camp.

Game leader, Nancy Marshall, taught the girls a new game. The group sang songs, led by Janet Karki. Miss Kelley then conducted a health lesson.

Delicious refreshments were later served by Mrs. Howard Maxwell, mother of the hostess. The next meeting will be held Monday, May 8, at the home of Joann Baldwin, R. D. 6, from 6:30 to 8:30 o'clock.

Death Valley, Cal., at 280 feet below sea level, the lowest point on the continent, is less that 80 miles from Mount Whitney, at 14,495 feet, the highest point in the United States, excluding Alaska.

Good Taste

By FRANCINE MARKEL

ATTRACTS MEN BUT CAN'T HOLD THEM

"Somehow I do not seem to make the grade in the game of love. I can attract men, but after a few dates they forget me. My mother cannot understand this. She says I am sufficiently attractive to me to have them rush me for awhile, so she cannot see why they disappear after a few dates. Have you ever heard of a similar situation?"

Answer: Yes, I have heard of similar situations. Sometimes there is good reason for them and sometimes there is not. Analyze your own situation and see if you are guilty of any of the following errors:

Do you act after a few dates as if he is "your man"—as if his attentions indicate serious interest in you?

Do you get too much cooperation from your family? By that I mean does the family give him too enthusiastic a welcome—enough to make the man beware of being "roped in?"

On the other side of the ledger you will find a few items worth investigating:

Is your home so situated that you can entertain your "dates" occasionally, inviting them to dinner and to spend the evening? Don't always appear with your hat on ready to go places.

There is also that question of personality and charm. Some girls have the looks to attract a man but lack the personality to keep him interested.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

OLD STYLE BRIDGES

It is estimated there are still at least 2,000 covered bridges in the United States.

County Photo Group Plans Activities

Lawrence County Photographic Society meeting was called to order by Adam F. Pivovar, president of the society. It was agreed by the members to have a photographic field trip on Sunday, May 14, and a trip per month thereafter.

A character study is to be taken and printed by the members for the monthly print clinic scheduled for May 5. From the various conversations discussing the character studies, the club is looking forward to seeing some elegant productions. A blossom photograph is scheduled for June's print clinic.

Following the adjournment of business, the program committee chairman, Herbert Jones, invited Darrel Gregg of Butler, to show by projection his collection of color slides of various scenes in the South Dakota Badlands, Yellow Stone National Park, Teton National Park in Wyoming, the Grand Canyon in Arizona, Zion National Park, and Yosemite National Park. It was noticed during the showing that a great many scenes were familiar to members J. Elder Bryan and Thomas J. Wiley.

Albert Ramsey and Clayton Hofmeister of the refreshment committee served a delicious lunch.

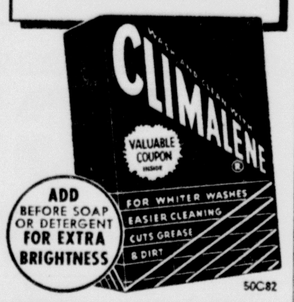

The next meeting is to be held May 5 at the residence of Dorothy Black, 102 West Garfield avenue.

Installation At Enon Is Planned

Rev. W. F. Byers To Be Installed Sunday

REV. W. F. BYERS

Rev. W. F. Byers, former pastor of the Neshannock Presbyterian church at New Wilmington, will be officially installed as pastor of the Enon Valley Presbyterian church Sunday evening at 8 o'clock DST.

The retired Presbyterian minister served as pastor of the New Wilmington church for 18 years and then as a supply for the Slippery Rock Presbyterian church near Ellwood City for a year and a half. He has been serving as stated supply at Enon Valley for several months.

The call to Rev. Byers to become permanent pastor of the Enon church was moderated at the sessions of Shenango Presbytery conducted Tuesday at Farrell. The call was found in order and given the official sanction of the Presbytery.

Services Sunday

The service Sunday evening will be moderated by Rev. W. Coburn Sweet, Jr., moderator of Shenango Presbytery and pastor of the Moravia Presbyterian church. Rev. J. W. Creighton of Westminster college will deliver the sermon.

Dr. Robert F. Galbreath, pastor of First Presbyterian church will charge the congregation with Rev. Ralph I. McConnell, of the Slippery Rock church charging the pastor. Rev. Robert Bell, former supply at Enon will offer the closing prayer.

Rev. Byers has missed few Sundays preaching since his retiral although he had earned a well deserved rest after spending many faithful years as a minister of the Gospel. During his supply pastorate at Enon, he became endeared to the hearts of the people and the decision came to call him as a permanent pastor if he would accept.

The Enon Valley church marked its seventy-fifth anniversary about two years ago. Rev. Byers will make his home with his daughter, Mrs. Ralph Gilliland at Mt. Jackson rather than to occupy the manse at Enon Valley.

The roller-coaster will represent an investment of approximtaely $22,000, and the fun-house, about $4,000.

Musmanno To Make Address Here May 3

Hon. Judge Michael A. Musmanno, of Pittsburgh, will deliver an address in New Castle, on Wednesday, May 3, at the Cathedral.

Sponsored by the Wolves club, the event will be held in conjunction with all civic organizations of the city, and will commence with a banquet at 6:30 o'clock.

Judge Musmanno, famous for his participation in the Nuremburg trials will speak on that subject, "Famous Nuremburg Trials."

The Judge who presided during the trials, acquired a wealth of information through actual experiences abroad. His relating of these many incidents will afford material of great interest to the listeners, it is anticipated.

No-Political

Emphasis is being placed on the fact that this meeting is a non-political meeting.

Judge Musmanno is well known for his many books and articles on the coal regions of Pennsylvania. He is the author of "Black Fury," and at present is writing a book on the Nuremburg trials.

Tickets will be available from all presidents of the various clubs.

William MeCarbo is the general chairman, and is being assisted by Frank Summers, program chairman of the Wolves club; Carm Sacco, William Ross, Frank Bordonaro, William Fazzone and Anthony Conti.

The Ellwood City Den 2, of the Wolves club will also assist in the arrangements.

Woman On Second Floor Hurt When Auto Hits House

PITTSBURGH, April 27.—(INS)—A woman sleeping in her second floor apartment was rudely awakened today when an automobile ran into the building with such terrific force she was taken to a hospital.

Treatment for shock and bruises was Mrs. Selma Whoby.

The auto, driven by George Bercini, 45, crashed into the building after a collision with a truck. He was being treated for back and leg injuries and possible internal injuries.

ADVICE TO MOTORISTS

PHILADELPHIA, April 27. — (INS)—The Keystone Automobile club is offering a hint to motorists planning long trips.

KAC says motorists should first check the routes they intend to use because many highway improvement programs are now under way.

The club points out that construction projects cause delay and tedious driving but can be avoided if drivers consult touring counsellors for construction and detour information.

AMERICAN FATHERS

VIENNA. — (INS) — American troops have fathered more illegitimate children than any of the other three occupying powers in Vienna. Vice-Mayor Karl Honay charged in a budget debate on welfare activities that in Vienna alone, 1,810 "army children" had become wards of the city. He said the number of unreported offsprings was probably "tremendous." He said American GI's were fathers of 769 of the known total, followed by the Russians, 621; the British 288; and the French 130.

HIGHWAYS

CHICAGO. — (INS)—More than $5 billion in repairs and construction are needed on urban links of the national system of interstate highways to bring them up to acceptable standards, according to the American Municipal Association. Nearly 6,000 of the 38,000 miles of highways in the U. S. that are designated as key interstate roads lie within urban boundaries. Estimates cited by the Association indicate that 3,500 miles of these streets are in need of repair or rebuilding.

PITTSBURGH. — (INS) — Now it's "two kitchens in every home." That, among other things, is what Westinghouse engineers predict for future homes. There will be one kitchen on the first floor, they say, and another on a rooftop observation porch for preparing meals in warm weather. The researchers also predict moving stairways, automatically controlled "indoor climate," and built in color television in the home of the future.

HOMESICK WAR BRIDE BACK HOME

LAUGHTER AND TEARS mark the end of the journey home for this war bride, one of forty-one British-born wives of American ex-servicemen who returned to England for a visit with their 32 children. At Northolt Airport, London, 3-year-old Blanche Schulman is hugged by the grandmother she has never seen, as her mother looks on. (International)

Y-Teens Form J-Y Hive Club

Group To Meet In YWCA Weekly

Y-Teens of the city junior high schools recently organized "The J-Y Hive" in the Central YWCA, where they and the boys from their respective schools come every Friday evening, 7:30 to 10:30 o'clock, to dance or learn to dance.

"The J-Y Hive" is a new feature in the Teen-Age program of the local YWCA, which grew from requests for opportunities for junior high school students to learn to dance. The name "J-Y Hive" was created by a committee of Y-Teens and boys from the two junior high schools and refers to the "juniors in the Y."

The committee is a policy-making body who sets up regulations for the "Hive"; it also divides jobs for each evening's activities—registering, playing records, supplying records, and cleaning the auditorium at the close of the evening.

Chaperones are supplied by YWCA committee members; student members were lending their own discs each night until a surprise "gift" from the Fleming Music store gave the Hive its own record library.

The J-Y Hive committee includes these adults: Mrs. W. C. Whieldon, Mrs. Earl J. Smith, Miss Jessica Jenkins—from the Committee for Teen-Age Program in the YWCA—and Mrs. Clark E. McClelland, Teen-Age Program director.

P.S.E.A. Dinner Plans Progress

Members of the social committee of the Pennsylvania State Education Association dinner met in the Model apartment of the Ben Franklin school.

Further plans were made for the dinner of May 9, with various committees appointed to complete arrangements. This spring banquet will be held in the dining room of the George Washington junior high school. Miss Nannie Mitcheltree, principal of the George Washington school, will head the reception committee for the occasion.

Robert Cowher, Christine Picrell, Russell Horchler, Belle M. Kyle, and Dorothy Kepp will compose the decoration committee. Invitations will be sent to the retired teachers by Martha Elder, and Mary E. Martin, president of the local P.S.E.A. chapter.

Invitations will be printed by Emma Maxwell and Orlando Lucidore. All schools are to report ticket sales to Louis Hammelly by May 3.

County To Get Powdered Eggs

Also Canned Milk For Distribution

Through the Federal government, the county is to bring in shortly five tons of powdered eggs and canned milk. It will be distributed to needy families in the county.

County Commissioner Joseph W. Gilmore was notified by the government that the foodstuffs were available out of surplus if the county would pick them up at Hoboken, N. J., and Jersey City, N. J.

A truck will be sent to the seaboard cities and the foodstuffs returned to New Castle within the next week or ten days.

VERDICTS RETURNED

Walter H. and Emma Smith were awarded $1600 by the jury hearing their case against the Strouss-Hirshberg Company. The plaintiffs claimed damages for injuries to Mrs. Smith when she fell on a stairway of the defendant company. The verdict was returned in court room number two.

In court room number one a verdict for the defendant was returned in the case of Silas D. Reed versus Robert D. Bishop, an automobile damage case.

The case of Rolland W. Harlan versus Joseph Contaldo was called in court room number one. This arises out of an automobile collision near Eckert's Bridge.

Only one case remains for trial and the term of civil court is over, the last until October.

To Close Consulate

INFORMED BY the State Department that the Czechoslovak consulate offices in Chicago must be closed, Deputy Consul Dr. Kurt Lanner chats with his chief in Washington by phone. The closing order was issued by the U.S. in retaliation for the Czech Communist government's demand for the recall of U.S. Embassy press officer Joseph C. Kolarek, in Prague, and the closing of the U.S. Information Services Offices. (International Soundphoto)

Around Hollywood

By FRANK NEILL

(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, April 27.- Off the celluloid cuff:

Esther Williams writes from Kauai, Hawaii, that she and hubby Ben Gage are going to sponsor an open golf tournament there this fall. Invites are on their way to Ben Hogan, Sam Snead and other top pros.

Scott Brady is opening a chain of sandwich shops . . . Burt Lancaster used to be a floorwalker in a Chicago department store but quit when assigned to the ladies' lingerie department . . . A guy named Pfeiffer Stumpf holds down the strangest job in Hollywood; he is a tree-winder, a character who waves branches for "process" shots to make the shadows of "passing" trees fall on actors' faces while they are supposed to be riding in a car . . .

Not Real Stutterer

Roscoe Ates, most celebrated stutterer of all time next to Greek Orator Demosthenes, actually has not stuttered off the screen for 36 years . . . John Mitchum, Bob's brother, is being given a star build-up. He was an Army boxing champ during the last war and between pictures directs a choir for the City of Los Angeles . . . Madge Inman, fan mail department head at 20th Century-Fox, reports that most studio mail comes (in order) to Betty Grable, Jeanne Crain, June Haver and Linda Darnell . . . Stephen McNally, the new 20th star, a lawyer during the depression, still gets letters from old law clients asking him to take cases . . .

Has Safety Plan

Clarence Brown, one of Hollywood's all-time great directors and producers, has poped up with an idea which traffic experts say will drastically reduce highway fatalities. California legislators are interested and predict the plan will spread across the nation.

Brown, expert amateur auto driver and aviator, proposes that all highways be separated by center lines of various colors denoting speed limits. The lines would eliminate conventional signs. Red line, for instance, will denote speed limit of less than 15 miles per hour, and no passing. Yellow line means 30 miles-per-hour. Et-cetra.

Brown's current film, "To Please a Lady," with Clark Gable and Barbara Stanwyck, is about automobile racing.

Committee Would Cut Amusement Tax

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(INS)—The House Ways and Means committee on Wednesday cut the 20 per cent general admissions tax for amusements in half as it boosted the overall slash in excise levies to 55 million dollars.

The committee reduced excise taxes another 240 million dollars, in addition to the 335 million dollars in cuts made previously. All actions were termed tentative

The committee, which is writing a new tax bill, reduced the tax rate for admissions to movies, professional sports events and other amusements to 10 per cent. Instead of one cent for each five cents or major fraction, it would be one cent for each ten cents.

PENTAGON PLAN

WASHINGTON—The Pentagon, the world's largest office building, is only five stories high, but consists of five rings of buildings connected by 10 corridors.

In The Open

My advance agents supposedly made all arrangements with the brook trout before I packed fishing gear into the car and headed for the high country. The trout drove a hard bargain but the understanding was that if I appeared on a certain stream on a certain day with options on a certain bait I would be given full cooperation by the resident brookies. Two dozen angleworms and a half-dozen lively minnows changed hands and the deal was on.

Well, somebody crossed me up and I haven't yet found out who sold me down the creek. I appeared on the stream on schedule, dressed in almost respectable togs, with a bait bucket full of options. But the trout defaulted on their commitments in a positively indecent manner.

Sleeping is wonderful in the trout country. I could hardly drag myself from the blankets when the chill dawn came on stage. And I filled myself to the bursting point with the delicious mountain spring water piped right into the camp. The doctored stuff we drink in the cities is surely a poor relation to this heady mountain brew.

Thermometer In Low Thirties

The thermometer stood somewhere in the low thirties. A fitful freeze drove lowering clouds along the ridges and an occasional snow squall laid its cool hand on my fevered intentions. But the old familiar stream, low and clear, sang its age-old siren song. Throwing all caution to the winds I plunged into the delightful pursuit of those elusive nymphs, the darting brookies.

Six days of the trout season had elapsed before I could find the time to meet my appointment on the stream. Reports were that 1400 legal fish had been stocked in that particular stretch of water. More than 300 anglers had combed the stream before I arrived on the scene. Allowing an average of five willing fish to each fisherman, other conditions being right, I might as well have stayed home.

Even so, there is usually a good trout or two in the inaccessible pools, so I threaded on a minnow swung the bait can from my belt, and started on the annual grand tour of that beautiful mountain valley. Sparkling riffles, white water, quiet pools, smooth glides—I fished them all for several hundred yards and never so much as saw a trout running for cover.

By this time I knew that the brookies had outwitted me and that I had been badly "taken" in the original bargaining. The stream started laughing suspiciously as it curled around the hemlock buttresses. It seemed as though the whole timberland burst into guffaws of laughter, now that the joke was out and there was no further need of keeping quiet about it.

Red Squirrels Snicker

The birches rocked in the gusty breeze with suppressed merriment, and a pair of piney red squirrels snickered like school children and tore up and down the lichen-covered trunks. A pair of crows, looking up nesting material, haw-hawed right out over my head till they had to stop flapping and sail, they were so weak from the laughter. A whole flock of chickadees tittered all along behind my back for a quarter of a mile.

After a little I too could see the joke and laugh myself. Another stretch of unproductive water brought me to a marshy area. Here I ran into a full chorus, a din that sounded as if all the rough-voiced goblins in the mountains were assembled in convention and had just heard how the trout had outdone me.

They were the wood frogs, actualy in annual convention in the marshy edges of that bottomland swale. They were not laughing at me. They were simply shouting their happiness at being thawed out and finding it springtime once more. When the convention is over they will go back to the woods, to surprise chance passersby with tremendous leaps from one brown invisibility to the next.

Finally an infant fish—perhaps four inches long—took pity on me and struck the minnow. I released him carefully and went on. Still another infant came to hand in the next half-mile, and he was put back unhurt. By high noon I had one "keeper" and had missed one good strike. The whole afternoon produced the same score—one I could keep, two more infants and one good one missed by poor rod handling.

The fisherman always has an alibi. Either the stream was not stocked, or it was too cold, or too high, or too something else.. I make this one defensive statement. The trout were just too smart for me that day. I'll even the score another time.

No More Movies For Mary Pickford

NEW YORK, April 27.—"America's Sweetheart" never looked prettier than she does these days. But nothing, absolutely nothing, could persuade Mary Pickford to make another movie.

She wrinkled her nose in distaste at the very idea.

"No, no, not for me!" she said emphatically as she settled about her the billowing skirt of a silver-gray taffeta tea gown, with a fichu of coral-red chiffon.

It was a ravishing gown and the tiny woman, with the slender waist, who wore it looked ravishing, too. Her skin is fresh, and pink and white. The thick, softly bobbed hair is still golden with scarcely a white thread in it.

If, by some magic, the long shimmering curls could have reappeared for even a moment, I would have felt that time had gallantly stood still for the movie's all-time star.

Still Recognize Her

Even though Mary Pickford appeared in her last movie in 1933 ("Secrets," with the late Leslie Howard) old fans still recognize her, somewhat to her surprise, despite the absence of the trade-mark curls.

When she was rubber-necking like any other American tourist in St. Mark's Square, Venice, last year, an Italian devotee recognized her and shouted the good news. Before Miss Pickford could say "Hollywood," she was surrounded by an enthusiastic, noisy mob.

"The police came running," Miss Pickford said. "They had their clubs drawn, probably expecting a communistic demonstration or something."

All she could thing to repeat over and over was "Artista, no politico," hoping the police could translate this basic Italian or esperanto before some innocent movie enthusiastic was clubbed as a radical intent on blowing up the government.

Tell Police Identity

Eventually, the fans remembered to tell the police who she was. The gendarmes joined the mob of admirers and under police escort, with hundreds of fans trailing along, Miss Pickford was escorted back to her gondola where her astounded husband, Buddy Rogers, audibly wondered—as do most husbands in moments of this kind—what his little woman had been up to, to require the services of a half dozen guardians of the law.

Although she and Mr. Rogers have sublet a duplex penthouse just off upper Park Avenue, Miss Pickford's heart is still in Hollywood, especially on rainy days.

"Every time it rains, I long to be in the attic of 'Pickfair,'" she said the chatelaine of this most famous of all of Hollywood's movie residences.

The attic holds the over-flow of treasures she has collected in years of world-wide travel, and she loves to spend leisurely days among the loot.

Widely Informed Mind

An hour's conversation with Mary Pickford is an hour's contach with a facile, widely-informed mind, ready to discuss everything from Judge Harold R. Media (crazy about him) to New York's traffic problems (has a solution up her sleeve), from slum clearance (sees great advance in New York) to the latest picture starring Doug Fairbanks, Jr., (has promised to preview it with her old friend Lillian Gish).

As we started on the second cup of tea, a gay little girl of seven, Roxanne Pickford Rogers, came into the room.

"Mother, may I turn on the television?" she asked.

"Certainly, dear," said Miss Pickford.

Then the little girl, whose big dark eyes and almost straight black hair are in such contrast to Miss Pickford's, asked if she might have a cookie, stay up late, not do homework and stay up late pul-lease, mother?

Miss Pickford said a firm "no" to each and all, while beaming on Roxanne. When the little girl left for the television in the next room, her mother grinned and said:

"You were just lucky she didn't start asking 'Why?' It's 'why' questions that wear me down."

Make Many Arrests For Speeding, Parking

There has been no cessation of speeding or illegal parking here, according to an attache of the police chief's office today.

However, some motorists who previously parked cars in alleys have abandoned the practice, realizing such parking is certain to bring a ticket for the offense.

The arrests for speeding have been mostly on state continuations.

FFA Roundup Occurs Friday

Lawrence County Youths Are Entered

Over 100 Lawrence county youths will participate in the annual district FFA Roundup, which will take place at Slippery Rock State Teachers college on Friday of this week. This is the 13th annual event and one which is looked forward to eagerly by those participating. Youths from 20 schools in the counties of Lawrence, Beaver, Butler, Mercer and Venango will take part.

The program will consist of judging and other contests in the morning, starting at 10 o'clock, with a tractor driving contest and recreational program in the afternoon. Headquarters will be established at the college chapel.

Contests will be held in poultry, agronomy, insect and disease verification, farm mechanics, vegetable seed identification, temperature adaption, fertilizer practices, tree identification and public speaking.

Because of the fact that over 600 youths will take part, the results will not be determined for several days after the contest ends, and will be made public at a later date.

Besides the contests, there will be a mushball tournament and horse shoe pitching contest.

Winners will represent their chapters in the state roundup in State College in June.

SLEEP IMPORTANT IN CHILD'S ROUTINE

Children want to be grown up and staying up late appeals to them as a sign of being grown up. It is hard to get them to see the value of sleep for themselves.

Children don't like to break away from the rest of the family; and they seem to be afraid they might miss something. Children feel alone and left out if they are tucked away in bed and the rest of the family is enjoying itself in another part of the house. Child care specialists believe it helps if the child is made to feel he really counts, that he is loved and wanted.

When parents make a child feel they are not trying to get him out of the way, parting is easier and sleep comes more quickly. Reading a story or sharing some experience together help to relieve tension and strain and excitement from play.

What happens when a child is awake often affects sleep. Children who are allowed to get overtired or worked up to a high pitch of excitement have difficulty falling asleep. A child who has plenty of outdoor play and play with other children his own age, will welcome sleep. With periods of rest and naps during the day, your child will be alert, happy and ready to yield to sleep without being emotionally or physically exhausted.

WAYS TO KEEP WALLPAPER CLEAN

Fingerprints, grease spots or dust on wallpaper detract from the appearance of the room. All of these may be removed with little time and effort. If allowed to stay too long, they get into the paper and become harder to remove.

Fresh grease spots and oily fingerprints may be removed by covering with white blotting paper and applying a warm iron. Often the spots can be taken off with an art gum eraser. If they still persist, you may try a cleaning fluid. Crayon marks usually come off by erasing or with cleaning fluid.

For dusting the walls, use a long handled soft brush or a broom with a soft cloth tied over it. If you have a vacuum cleaner, use the wall attachment. Whatever you use, be sure it is clean. Change the cloth or wipe the nozzle of the cleaner often. Clean the brush frequently so you won't be putting dust back onto the wall.

After dusting the walls, you find they are not so clean as you would like them to be. Use either a commercial cleaner or make one yourself.

For a homemade cleaner, try this: Stir 4 teaspoons baking soda into 3 cups flour. Add 2½ tablespoons household ammonia and 1¼ cups water; beat the mixture until smooth. Cook in a double boiler 1½ hours. It becomes quite thick and brown. Remove from the heat and keep covered. Cool until it can be handled. Knead in the hands until smooth and soft. Keep the cleaner in a soft flexible mass by adding more flour if sticky or a little water if too stiff. Blend perfectly after any addition.

CHEYENNE, Wyo. — (INS) — Cheyenne, owing to its rapid advancement after the first settlement in 1867, gained the title of "The Magic City".

In China the mourning color is white.

PLASTIC PATTERN

NEW YORK — (INS) — Home dressmaking has been simplified by a revolutionary pattern made of plastic film that drapes and hangs like fabric. The pattern comes sewn together to form a completed half-dress ready to be tried on for size and becomingness. The simple chain stitch unravels when the thread is pulled, leaving perforations along all seams and darts. Usual tailor tacks and other markings are accomplished by dusting a powder puff lightly over the perforations, leaving sewing lines on the material.

Employes Of Westinghouse Voting Today

PITTSBURGH, April 27.—(INS)—Two rival unions, which have fought a non-holds-barred word battle for the right to represent Westinghouse Electric Corporation employes, today yielded determination of victory to nation-wide National Labor Relations Board elections.

An estimated 55,000 eligible voters, scattered over 51 separate voting units in 32 cities, will cast ballots to choose between the United Electrical, Radio & Machine Workers Union and the newly-formed CIO-IUE.

The NLRB office in Pittsburgh will begin counting ballots at 9 p. m. EST.

UE, which was expelled from the CIO for allegedly following the Communist party line, has held a national contract with Westinghouse since 1943.

Seven Chapters To Send Delegates To Fraternity Meeting

Westminster college members of Sigma Phi Epsilon will welcome 56 delegates from seven visiting chapters Saturday, April 29, at the national fraternity's twenty-first district convention.

Awaiting Sig Ep brothers from Bucknell, Davis and Elkins, Marshall, Penn State, Thiel and the Universities of Pittsburgh and West Virginia, the local chapter expects a complete assemblage by noon Saturday.

Held annually, the convention consolidates relations and integrates policies among the district chapters. This yearly interchange of ideas is essential to a progressive fraternity, according to Bradford, Pa., junior Bill Dahlgren, president of the Westminster chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon.

"On a smaller scale," he states, "the convention paralleis the annual fraternity conclave to which 101 chapters of Sigma Phi Epsilon send delegates. The convention delegates, like those at the conclave, discuss current problems facing the fraternity. Then, a combined effort is made to solve these problems."

Following the afternoon discussions, the local chapter will be hosts at a banquet in the New Penn hotel, New Castle, at 7:30 p. m. Toastmaster for the occasion will be Willard Agnew, governor of the district chapter, from Aspinwall, Pa.

HAS SHOULDER BROKEN

William E. Ward, aged 66 years, of 1012 S. Jefferson street, was treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital Wednesday, for a fracture of the left shoulder. Mr. Ward was injured a week ago, when he tripped and fell on a carpet in his home, and struck his left arm on a bench. When the injury continued to bother him, he went to the hospital, where X-ray examination revealed the fracture.

Costello Denies He Ever Was Member Of Crime Syndicate

By GLENN M. GREEN
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 27—Frank Costello emphatically denied under oath today that he ever was a member of a crime syndicate, but admitted that he owns over 500 slot machines in Louisiana that are operated "against state laws."

Costello also admitted that he once was a horse race "betting commissioners" and operated a gambling casino.

The dapper New Yorker told a Senate gambling subcommittee that he now deals in real estate, has some oil leases in Texas and owns a night club and restaurant in Louisiana.

Costello several times refused to answer senators' questions and stood on his constitutional right to refuse to do so. But when Chairman McFarland (D) Ariz., asked him whether he was a member of a crime syndicate, the witness replied:

"No. Absolutely not."

Under questioning by Sen. Tobey (R) N.H., Costello said he "never made any arrangements with any official at any time or ever "greased any palms." He added, however:

"I can't talk for my agents. They don't act for me."

In answer to Tobey's questions as to whether Costello had any business in Louisiana, Costello said:

"I have slot machines there—five or six hundred. I own them, I bought them."

House Spy Probers Get New Evidence

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(INS)—House spy probers meet behind closed doors today to discuss new evidence which prompted their demand that the loyalty case of William W. Remington be reopened.

The executive session of the Un-American Activities committee was summoned by Chairman Wood (D) Ga., after he announced that the Commerce department official, once suspended as a security risk but later reinstated, will be the subject of a hearing next month.

Remington was accused at a Senate hearing in 1948 by Miss Elizabeth Bently of giving her information when she served as a spy courier for the Communists. He denied turning over any classified information to his accuser and testified that he thought she was a newspaperwoman.

Galbreath Avenue Home Damaged

City firemen were called to the home of John Moses, of 417 Galbreath avenue, about 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, by an alarm from Box 59, where they found the bedroom ablaze. Damage of around $250 was done, Fire Chief H. F. Steinbrink reports. The cause of the blaze was not determined.

Leaking gasoline from the gas line of an auto owned by Jack Groucutt, of 409 E. Leasure avenue, caught fire last evening at 10 o'clock, causing damage of around $50. Second ward firemen who were summoned to the scene extinguished the blaze with their booster line.

The Lehigh university hockey team enjoyed its best season in history this year when the Engineers won five and lost two. Leading the brown and white puck pushers was Edward W. Dann, Buffalo, N. Y., who scored 14 goals and six assists.

Reserves Have Anniversary

In celebration of the completion of their fourth year as a post-war organization and in honor of their retiring officers, members of the Lawrence County Chapter of the Reserve Officers Association gathered at a suburban dining room on Wednesday evening for their third annual anniversary dinner.

Following a delicious dinner Howard Carlisle, a past president of the chapter who was acting as toastmaster, introduced the retiring president, Walter Conover. Mr. Conover spoke briefly about the history of the chapter and told how the chapter has grown until today it is one of the leading veteran's groups in the county. The next speaker was Ernest McClymonds, president of the chapter, who gave a brief review of the activities of the club, both civic and social, and gave an outline of the events that are planned for the coming year. Presentation of a Past President's Key to Mr. Conover was made by Mr. McClymonds. In making the presentation Mr. McClymonds told how the organization had progressed under Mr. Conover's leadership. Raymond Chapman then entertained the group with some delightful songs.

The remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing and cards. Chairman for the highly successful affair was Waldron Curley. He was assisted by Fred Riley, John Wilson and Ernest McClymonds.

The next social event for the organization will be a Spring dance to be held at the New Castle Country Club on May 20.

Farmers Guests Of Volant Lions At Meeting This Week

Seated around tables centered with beautiful arrangements of daffodils and forsythia, more than sixty Volant Lions and their farmer guests heard some interesting speakers discuss farming and its problems Tuesday evening. The meeting took place in the Volant Methodist church.

Lewis Dayton, county agent, and William Johnstone, the latter from the Department of Agricultural Economics at State college, were introduced by King Lion Hillard. Johnstone talked on "Farm Policy Today" giving an interesting resume of farm programs, prices received and those paid by farmers. He especially emphasized the difficulties encountered by these men of the soil and stressed the fact that each should become a specialist in his particular field.

This meeting which is on the calendar as Farmers' Night, is an annual affair and as usual was well attended. Guests were present from both Mercer and Lawrence counties.

The program of the evening was preceded by a bountiful dinner served by ladies of the church, who were assisted by members of the Junior class.

BOY HURTS ELBOW

Symphony Has Fine Program

First Anniversary Of Local Orchestra

Take one outstanding, distinctive director, add seventy ambitious, cooperative musicians and you have one of the most inspiring symphony orchestras of the New Castle area.

Definite proof of this statement could be found in last night's New Castle Symphony orchestra's first anniversary concert at the Cathedral auditorium. One could feel the anticipation of the audience as a hushed silence came over the assemblage at 8:30.

Moods Portrayed

What would an orchestra be without a conductor? Anthony Casbero, possessor of the vigorous, dramatic personality, placed himself in every mood and style of the hypnotic music. The orchestra seemed possessed by the same spirit as they followed Casbero's every movement, eliciting rich, lovely tones that in themselves were masterpieces of artistry.

The graceful, rhythmic movements of the conductor's arms and hands seemed to be a symphony in itself. His deeply rooted, sound musical instinct was openly displayed as the orchestra opened with the Overture to "Egmont" by Beethoven. Violins were entrusted with the principal theme in the "First Movement Symphony No. 4 in A Major" by Mendelssohn. The spontaneous flow of melody is interwoven here and there with the crisp staccato of the strings.

The second half of the program contained shorter works, beginning with the captivating, gay "Cuban Holiday." This fascinating work by Phillips portrayed most effectively the Cuban spirit and atmosphere. Mascagni's Intermezzo from "Cavalleria Rusticana" contains one of the loveliest flowing melodies to be found in all opera.

Spirited Music

"Voices of Spring" by the Waltz King, Johann Strauss Jr., is filled with all the gaiety and spirit of the composer. The closing number, Dance of the Comedians from "The Bartered Bride," displays exceeding grace and musical attractiveness. The charm of the music lies in its melody, and especially in the clarity with which the themes are handled. The closing passages of the "Dance" are particularly brilliant and merry.

Three encores followed the deafening applause of the audience. Even when the lights were dimmed and the last person made his way from the auditorium, the strains of the unforgettable music seemed to linger in the air.

Good music is an asset to any community, and New Castle can be sure that she has laid a permanent foundation for an outstanding Symphony Orchestra, one that she will be proud to claim as her own for many years to come.

LIGHTS OUT

SAN DIEGO, Cal. — (INS)—If the world is to learn the secrets of the universe through the world's largest telescope at Palomar Observatory, they'll have to douse those lights in the surrounding towns and cities. Scientists at the multi-million dollar project asked the San Diego County board of supervisors to restrict lights within a radius of four miles of the observatory and searchlights within a 10-mile radius. The lights, the savants said, interfered with the accurate photographing of the stars.

Veterans who have lost limbs or the permanent use of them in Massachusetts have their automobile license plates marked with a "V." They are license and registration-free.

BESSEMER

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Meinke, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Meinke and daughter, Lillian, of Conneaut O., were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Davidson.

A group of 14 friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Davidson, on Monday evening. The couple were celebrating their 7th wedding anniversary. Mrs. Davidson was presented with a beautiful linen table cloth. A lunch of cake, ice cream, and coffee was served late in the evening.

Friendship class will hold their regular monthly meeting on Friday evening, April 28 in the Bessemer Presbyterian church basement.

Sara Engle Bible class will meet on Thursday, April 27, in the Bessemer Presbyterian church basement.

Mrs. Richard Larsen and children, of Chico, Calif., are spending a few weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wainer, of Walnut street.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Swanson, of Detroit, Mich., were visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Swanson have chosen Kirsten Elvera as the name for their new baby.

Under the protectorate of Puritan Oliver Cromwell, celebrating Christmas was regarded as a crime in England.

ROOF-RAISING

PITTSBURGH. — (INS)—In its new open-air amphitheatre for 9,500 people the Pittsburgh Civic Light Opera Association will be able to raise the roof in about two and a half minutes. From the rear of the amphitheatre, a giant steel cantilever will arch over the center of the arena. When it rains, pie-shaped sections of steel framework covered with a plastic fabric will swing forward from the rear on tracks around the perimeter. The completed pie, supported by cables from the steel cantilevers, will cover everything from Carmen to Rosalinda, according to the American Iron and Steel Institute.

Detroit Tigers Must Be Reckoned With In A L Pennant Fight

By HOWARD SIGMAND
(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, April 27.—A third party—the Detroit Tigers—is making an early, but loud bid for the American league pennant.

While the race is expected to become an ultimate dog-fight between the New York Yankees and the Boston Red Sox, the presence of the troublesome motor city lads is bound to be felt.

The Tigers, "stacked" as far as pitching is concerned, didn't get much of that yesterday. But they managed to score two runs in the top of the tenth to nose out the Brownies, 8 to 6, for their sixth win in seven starts.

Without Newhouser

Detroit has won two games apiece from the Indians, the White Sox and the Brownies. The latter two can not be considered topnotch competition, but also to be reckoned with is the fact that the Bengals are doing all this without the benefit of Hal Newhouser, their ace.

Singles by George Kell and Pat Mullin accounted for the winning markers yesterday. Rookie Ed Albrecht, last of five Brownie pitchers, was charged with the defeat, the fifth straight for St. Louis.

Ken Wood blasted his third homer of the season in the fourth with none on.

The Yankees are still getting the jump on the Red Sox. The world champions drubbed the Bostonians, 10 to 2, behind Lefty Ed Lopat. It was the Yankees' third victory in four starts against the Sox this season.

Home runs by Ed Yost and Al Evans helped the Washington Senators to a 5 to 3 win over the Philadelphia Athletics in a night game. Evans' smack came with two men on off Bobby Shantz. Sid Hudson, allowed the A's seven hits, one of them a two-run circuit clout by Ferris Fain.

Ebbets Field, the center of many rhubarbs, saw another one last night. It happened during the tenth inning in which Peewee Reese's single with the bases loaded gave the Brooklyn Dodgers a 5 to 4 win over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Phillies Protest

The Phillies stormed around Umpire Babe Pinelli in protest to a decision which gave Roy Campanella ground rule double and placed the winning run on third. Manager Eddie Sawyer announced he was protesting the game.

Lefty Howie Pollet won his first game of the year and Stan Musial almost was a "goat" as the St. Louis Cardinals edged the Cincinnati Reds 3 to 2.

Musial's errors in the third let in both Cincinnati runs. But Stan the Man came back in the fifth and tied the score with a triple and scored the winning run on Enos Slaughter's single.

Two Postponed

Pollet allowed only five hits as he handed the Reds their sixth straight loss (without a win) of the campaign.

The Cleveland Indian-Chicago White Sox day game was postponed because of cold weather and the New York Giants-Boston Brave night game was postponed because of wet grounds.

Oil Capitol Tries Comeback Today

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 27.—(INS)—Oil Capitol attempts a comeback today in the $20,000 Blue Grass stakes at Keeneland over a mile and an eighth.

Oklahoma's Kentucky Derby hope goes to the post as a favorite to regain the prestige lost in an allowance race at Lexington a week ago. The gray three-year-old colt finished out of the money in that seven-furlong event.

Gene Bilo Sparks Senators Win 18 To 12 Over Oil City Team

(Special To The News)

GREENCASTLE, Pa., April 27.—Sparked by Ellwood City's Eugene "Specs" Bilo, the Senators' fast centerfielder, the New Castle team won its opening exhibition game of the spring training season yesterday by trouncing Oil City 18 to 12. Ossie Bluege of the Washington Senators was an interested and impressed spectator at the game.

Today the New Castle Senators will play Mercersburg Academy on the local ball field.

Bilo had a terrific day at bat with three singles, a double and triple, while Herm Kiel, Al Mouton and Danny Dondero also pounded the ball hard. Bilo in his second year with New Castle is expected to have a great year at the plate, having hit .290 as a freshman last year.

Churchill Winning Hurler

Herb Churchill was the winning hurler, with Frank Wagner and Dick Janacone also hurling three innings apiece. Churchill was the strongest of the three Senators hurlers.

Manager Chuck Cronin swung the axe again today and handed releases to Al Orlando, Mickey Michalojko, Tony DeFelice, all of New Castle, and Robert Stevenson of Cleveland. Several other cuts will be made before the end of the week, Cronin intimated.

Famiglietti Reporting

Tommy Famiglietti, a hard-hitting and fast outfielder, has been optioned to New Castle by Charlotte and will report today. He will be used in left field. Last year with Concord in the North Carolina State league he hit .286 in 93 games and drove in 60 runs on 101 hits, 17 doubles, four triples and two homers and fielded .965, and in the Virginia league with Mooresville hit .305 in 20 games, with 25 hits in 82 times at bat, driving in 15 runs. He hits a long ball. Famiglietti fielded .941 at Mooresville.

Break Camp Sunday

The New Castle team is breaking camp here Sunday, it was announced by Business Manager Attorney Frang Moretti, now in camp with his wife.

The totals on the game yesterday: New Castle 18 runs, 20 hits and four errors; Oil City 12 runs, 14 hits and five errors.

Fans Eager To See Grays Play Senators Tuesday

Opening Game Here Will Draw Crowd

All indications point to a crowd of over 2,000 for the opening game of the season here next Tuesday for the New Castle Senators and Homestead Grays battle at Flaherty Memorial Field. Game time is 8 o'clock. (DST).

On the streets, in the factories and the homes, the uppermost conversation is baseball and the 1950 Senators. The fans are eager to see what the Citizens Baseball Inc. has done this year in the way of bringing New Castle a winning ball club in the Class C Mid-Atlantic league.

Grays Are Strong

The Homestead Grays will provide a fine test for the Senators as they prepare for the loop opener next Friday with Vandergrift. S. H. Posey, now sole owner of the Grays has moulded together another strong team. The Grays for years have had fine teams, and are good competition.

President Al Scarazzo of the Citizens Baseball Inc., has called a meeting of all stockholders for 8 o'clock tonight at his office on South Mill street for the purpose of getting the "Ball" started on the opening day ceremonies and ticket sales.

Support Senators

There are no tickets being sold in advance for the Grays game, but they are being sold in advance for the opening with Vandergrift.

It is up to New Castle to support the Senators this year, the club being locally owned (200) stockholders with New Castle capital behind it.

PHILADELPHIA, PENNA.—Fifty years ago the Philadelphia A's played their first American league game at old Columbia park, the event was covered by Ben Armiger, 74, a photographer. Connie Mack, 87, turned the tables on Ben and became the photographer at a dinner of the Poor Richard club. The club honored both men and presented each with a citation of merit.

Cane Golfers Trim Butler

New Castle High golf team won its third straight WPIAL, Section 1, golf match yesterday afternoon.

The Cane linksmen stomped Butler, 15-0, over a soggy Castle Hills course. Coach Robert Mills' team downed Beaver Falls by a similar score last week after edging Sharon in the opener, 8 to 7.

Perhaps the most important match of the season for New Castle will be staged next Monday afternoon at 2:45 when Sharon visits Castle Hills and the Canes.

Bogdon Medalist

Ed Bogdon took medalist honors with a 38-39—77. Howard Haid was a close second with 38-40—78. Lonchena was best for Butler with a 40-41—81 card.

Sharon defeated Beaver Falls 13½-1½ yesterday afternoon for its first win. Butler and Beaver Falls are still winless. The Monday match with Sharon can assure the Canes of a district playoff spot.

The summary:

Haid defeated Lonchena, 3-0; Quinn defeated Stewalter, 3-0; Bogdon defeated Propochob, 3-0; Glenn defeated Huhenich, 3-0, and Lasky defeated Campbell, 3-0.

UNIVERSALS PRACTICE

Universal-Rundle baseball team of the City league will stage a practice tonight at five o'clock at George Washington field.

Matchmaker Suspected 'Portuguez' Was Fake

WICHITA, Kas., April 27—(INS)—A Wichita matchmaker has testified that he first suspected a "ringer" was in action when he saw Jose Rafael Aviles start his bout with Alvin Williams last April 5.

The witness, matchmaker Max Yeargain, declared yesterday, however, that he had no authority to hold up the Puerto Rico fighter's purse. Aviles was fighting under the name of Tuzo (Kid) Portuguez, prominent New York middleweight.

Williams, Wichita middleweight, cooled Aviles in the first round.

The "ringer" is charged with obtaining money under false pretenses.

New Wilmington Whips Mt. Jackson

New Wilmington high school knocked off Mt. Jackson 10-1 Wednesday afternoon at New Wilmington for its second win in two starts.

Todd Wilkin held the Mounties to one hit—a single by Gilken in the fourth—to notch the win. Dave Boyd and Wilkin chipped in with two hits for the winners. Boyd and Bill Young had doubles.

Mt. Jackson	100 000 0	1	1	1

Mountaineers Trim Titans

Westminster's golf and tennis teams should have perhaps stayed away from West Virginia yesterday.

The undefeated linksmen suffered a 9 to 0 setback at the hands of the Mountaineer swatters and the hosts at Morgantown whipped the Titan netters, 8 to 1.

Gavett and Curtz gave Westminster its only victory of the afternoon by winning in doubles play in the tennis match.

Both teams will remain idle today and then resume play Friday when the tennis team meets Geneva on the New Wilmington courts and the golfers play Grove City at Grove City.

Bessemer Downs East Brook, 6-3

Undefeated Bessemer annexed its fourth Section 8, WPIAL, baseball win yesterday afternoon by whipping East Brook, 6 to 3.

Coach Al Russo's Cementer nine parlayed three East Brook errors three walks, and a pair of hits for four runs in the last inning to win the game.

East Brook had taken a 3-0 lead in the first inning by getting all three of its hits and capitalizing on two Bessemer errors.

Bob Smith went all the way for East Brook and pitched good ball until his support gave way in the seventh. He struck out eight.

Tanner, the third Bessemer hurler, received credit for the win.

Russ Cracraft and Tom Shuluga were the best stickmen with two singles apiece for the winners.

Batteries: East Brook—Smith and Pontius; Bessemer—DeArment, Zornich (1), Tanner (5) and Gagliano.

Union Tops Shenango In Extra-Inning Tilt

Union high school defeated Shenango 5-4 Wednesday afternoon in an extra inning battle at Union.

Shenango tied the score in the seventh but Union pushed over the winning run in their half of the eighth on a squeeze play that failed.

Fred Coates scored from third with one out in the eighth after the batter missed the ball on an attempted bunt. An attempted rundown of the runner between third and home ended up in a miscue and the winning run scored.

Bill Ahrens went all the way for the Scotties for his second win of the season. Dick Kroesen started for Shenango but gave way to Johnny in the eighth, who was tagged with the loss.

John Braatz had two triples for Shennago and Arsen Ross, Bob Klenotic, Dick Pitzer and Gene List had doubles for Union.

Midgets Race At Canfield Saturday

CANFIELD, O., April 27.—The first all-reverse start program in AAA midget auto racing ever to be run in the Michigan-Ohio-Pennsylvania area is scheduled for the Canfield Speedway midget race opener Saturday night, April 29, when a large field of the top stars of the nation take the starter's flag.

It is expected that a large attendance will be on hand to see what happens when such champions as Ralph Pratt from Kansas City, Eddie Johnson of Los Angeles, Carl Forberg of Detroit and Jack Kabat of Cleveland take the tail positions. The betting is strong that they won't be back there very long.

Eddie Johnson returned from his home in Los Angeles only a few days ago to be on hand for the Canfield opener on Saturday night.

'Senators Will Not Be Pushed Around,' Bucky Harris Says

PHILADELPHIA, April 27.—(INS)—Don't pity Bucky Harris in his job of managing the lightly-regarded Washington Senators.

Harris, baseball's one-time "boy wonder" manager who also piloted the New York Yankees, made it clear today that his club is not to be looked upon as a "pushover" for other American league teams.

"In fact," said Harris, "before the season is over we're quite likely to unload plenty of surprises. We've more balance by far than last season.

After all, this early in the season we have already knocked over the Boston Red Sox, the New York Yankees and the Athletics."

The mackmen, Red Sox and Yankees all are regarded as American league pennant contenders. Harris' club finished in the cellar in 1949.

Mrs. Thos. E. Nolan Loses To Peggy Kirk

Mrs. T. E. Nolan of New Castle, lost to defending champion Peggy Kirk, 5-4, in the Women's North and South Amateur Golf Tourney at Pinehurt, N. C., Tuesday.

Yesterday Miss Kirk defeated Grace Lenczyk, runnerup in the past two years, to enter the quarter finals tomorrow.

Young Rifle Club To Meet Tonight

Colonel Charles Young Rifle club will meet at the Shenango Y tonight at 8 oclock to see two army instruction films on the Cal .30 M-' rifle.

The films are entitled "Position" and "Rapid Fire".

Art Mahan, baseball mentor at Villanova College, starred with the Philadelphia Phillies before entering the service in 1941. One of the top diamond stars in Villanova history, Mahan is in his first year at his Alma Mater.

Shamrocks Have Spring Banquet

East Side Shamrocks held their Spring banquet Wednesday evening at the Morton street hall with a spaghetti and meatball supper.

At the conclusion of the meal films were shown by Frank Copple. Among the films shown was an exhibition performance by Clyde Beatty, and a technicolor film of the New Castle-McKeesport championship game.

Guests at the supper included Harry Reith, Frank Fannin, Fred Quinto, and new Shamrock batboy Charles Kelly.

Mr. Copple gave a few explanations during the films. Fred Qunito, manager of the Shamrocks softball team, gave a short talk concerning the showing of the team last season and the prospects for the coming year.

Mrs. Chester Tuscano, Mrs. Frank Fannin and Mrs. Pearl Bookamer served the meal.

The Shamrock softball team will hold an important practice tonight at Rose avenue field at 5:15. The Rocks will meet the Hanks Firday evening at Rose avenue at 5:30 in a practice game.

Softball League To Meet Friday

City Softball league will hold its final meeting at the YMCA Friday evening at 8:30, it is announced by Secretary Nick George. All managers are asked to have their contracts at this meeting.

SCOTTS TO WORKOUT

The Scott-Pontiacs of the city softball league will have a workout at the Booker T. Washington field tonight at 5:30 o'clock it was announced, and will play the Blackhawks a practice game at Gaston park Field Friday at 5:30 o'clock. Sam Haddad is the manager of the Scotts.

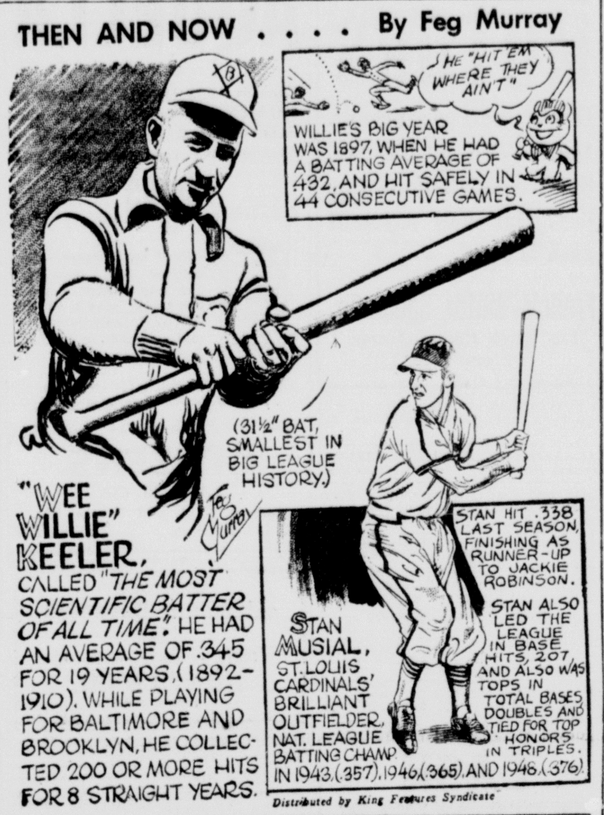

Move over latbush—step aside Cleveland—Philadelphia's baseball boosters are coming out of hibernation.

HERE and THERE IN SPORTS LAND

MEMBERS of the Mahoning Sportsman's club hope to cement stronger ties between sportsmen and farmers when they meet at 7:30 p. m. tonight in Hillsville school. The club members realize that the farmers own their "playground" and that Mr. and Mrs. Farm Owner are entitled to fullest consideration. Motion pictures of a British Columbia hunting trip by New C stle hunters will be narrated by Earl Jordan. . . . Fans who follow Cit, and County Baseball League teams can scarcely await the opening date for both circuits which is May 7. Last season their games attracted good crowds, and both loops enjoyed splendid seasons. Such loops are the preparing fields for more advanced leagues. Large followings they attract is explained by the fact that, the teams are composed of home-town boys, hence there is a local "flavor" and the progress of players is watched avidly. With night lights, Bessemer will be the mecca of many baseball fans this season. . . . Rose Mooney and Mildred Donaldson are two local women who took the Sun-Tele Duxpin singles title out of Allegheny county. Rose took the crown in 1946, and Mildred won it in 1947. . . . Women's International Bowling league tournament will distribute prizes amounting to $72,170. The tourney is under way at St. Paul. . . . Harrington, Del., and Yonkers sulky tracks are now operating. . . . Local patrons of harness racing will keep their eyes on Mr. Nibs, a recently obtained colt by Joe Rick from the Hanover farms.

Tommy Newman is preparing for a big time when ex-high stars gather May 6 at the Connoquenessing club, near Ellwood City. Here & There will renew some old acquaintances that night. . . . The American Medical association has warned that boxing requires the strictest medical supervision and control for the safety of participants. No one can find fault with this opinion. . . . "Bob Baker is good. However, he is weak about the midriff," said a local fan to Here & There after seeing Baker belt out Rusty Payne, as was anticipated. "What Baker needs is exercise which will develop muscles about his midriff," the fan added. . . . Dal Hartman is going to have his troubles, or is he? Supplying umpires for both City and County circuits after May 7. . . . Joe O'Leary, A.L. league says he has not yet obtained enough umpires, so if you're 21, or over, and can umpire baseball, page Joe. The American Legion leagues have produced many topnotch ball players and it may do the same for umpires. . . . When Bob Ford, promising, and popular Youngstown mat heavyweight, with Enrique Torres, the Mexican Beau Brummel enters the ring May 3 to wrestle Jim Wright and Don Evans, tele-stars, he'll get a nice reception here. Bob is popular and we were sorry to learn he was the victim of an illegal truck Gorgeous George? (the man with the curls, perfum and valet) which caused him to be hospitalized. The Gorgeous One (or is he?) was fined and banned by Youngstown's mat commission.

Resolution

of the
Board of School Directors of the Township of Union, in Lawrence County, Pennsylvania, which is a School District of the Fourth Class under the Laws of said Commonwealth providing for the Levying of a Tax on Sales of Admission to Places of Amusement Conducted within the Territorial Limits of said School District.

Moved by J. H. ELLSWORTH, and seconded by J. Hartman, that the following resolution be passed:

Be it resolved that the School District of the Township of Union, in Lawrence County, Pennsylvania, being a school district of the fourth class under the provisions of the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, for the school year beginning July 1, 1950 and ending July 1, 1951, levy and assess for general revenue purposes, a tax of 10% on each sale of admission to all places of amusement located within the territorial limits of said School District, same to be used for general revenue purposes.

All persons, firms or corporations operating any place of amusement within the territorial limits of the said School District hereby are required to make monthly reports to the Secretary of this Board of School Directors on the First day of each month, or on the Second day if the First day is Sunday, showing the number of admissions to places of amusement operated within the territorial limits of said School District sold during the preceding current month, to which shall be attached an affidavit by the person making the report that the same is true and correct.

All persons, firms or corporations operating any place of amusement within the territorial limits of the said School District hereby are required to make payment to the Treasurer of said School District of the amount due and owing for said tax for the preceding current month based on said report, said payment to be made not later than the Tenth day of the month succeeding the month for which the report was made.

The reason which, in the judgment of this Board of School Directors, necessitates the imposition of this tax, is that in the construction of new buildings and the acquiring of new equipment and the employment of additional teachers, it is necessary to have more revenue than it is possible to collect by levies on the real estate assessment in said School District.

The amount of revenue estimated to be derived from this tax is $2,000.00.

That this resolution be published in the New Castle News once a week for three (3) consecutive weeks beginning on April 27, 1950, setting forth, among other things, that it is the purpose of this Board of School Directors to adopt said resolution finally on the 23rd day of May 1950, at a meeting of said Board of School Directors to be held on that date in the high school building of said School District at 8 o'clock P.M., Daylight Savings Time.
